GREAT BRITAIN GROWS ANXIOUS

Wants a Naval Understanding with United States.

NAVAL POLICY OF NEW ADMINISTRATION

Indicated Denby Favors a Navy Second to None.

Not in Favor of a Reduction in Naval Building Until America Is on Plane with England. A Controversy Coming.

Washington, March 17.—The announcement in London, by the first lord of the British admiralty, that Great Britain is not only ready but anxious to reach a naval understanding with the United States, was received with great interest in Washington. Lord Lee's frank statement on England's position, following as it did the reduction in England's naval estimates for 1922, was regarded as highly significant.

Already there is looming up in the not far-distant future a controversy of no small proportions over the naval policy to be followed by the new administration.

In the two weeks he has been in office, Secretary of the Navy Denby has indicated clearly in his few public utterances and in his conferences with his aides, that he is heartily in favor of an American navy equal to any in the world, which, in this case, means England's. He has also indicated clearly that he does not favor a reduction in the American navy until it has reached that plane of equality.

President Harding has not given any public indication of his attitude in the matter since entering the White House, but presumably the views of his naval secretary are the reflection of his own. When Denby accepted the portfolio of naval secretary it was announced that the president and Mr. Denby were "in full accord" on naval affairs and policies.

For Understanding.

In both house and senate, however, there are determined groups which favor an immediate understanding between the powers for naval reduction and partial disarmament, regardless of the present relative standings. The cries against heavy taxation and for economy in governmental expenditures beat strongly on congressional ears.

Naval experts who have studied the situation believe that the only basis of reduction which Great Britain would agree to would be a "percentage" or "proportionate" reduction, with each of the contracting parties cutting their strength, say fifty per cent.

Thus, if Great Britain sat down at a conference table with a navy twenty per cent. stronger than that of the United States, she would still have a navy twenty per cent. stronger than the United States after both had agreed to cut their navies by half.

As thus far disclosed, the naval policy of the new administration is to avoid getting involved in any such agreement as this. While heartily favoring a naval understanding, the attitude of Secretary Denby, the high ranking officers of the navy and in other quarters is that the United States should not sit down to talk about cutting navies until her own strength is such that she will be protected, whichever way the cat jumps.

DR. FRANK GUNSAULUS DIES VERY SUDDENLY

Victim of Brief Illness of Heart Disease in Chicago.

Chicago, March 17.—Dr Frank Gunsaulus, president and one of the founders of the Armour institute of technology and one of the most noted ministers of the present day, died here at 4 o'clock, this morning. The end came two hours after he had been stricken by heart disease.

Dr. Gunsaulus was pastor of Central church here for twenty years and was internationally known as a minister and lecturer. He resigned his pastorate several years ago, to give all of his time to the Armour institute.

Dr. Gunsaulus was educated at Ohio Wesleyan university and at [illegible]

COMMONS CHIEF QUITS HIS POST

A. Bonar Law, Unionist Leader, Resigns Position.

POLITICAL CIRCLES ARE GIVEN A JAR

Law Is the Right-Hand Man of Premier George.

Asserted Tories Are Refusing To Work Any Longer in Double-Harness with the Premier. New Election Is Near.

London, March 17.—A Bonar Law, leader of the house of commons, has resigned his cabinet post of lord privy seal, Premier Lloyd George announced in the house of commons, this afternoon. Ill health was given as the reason. Mr. Law was formerly chancellor of the exchequer. He was one of the most influential leaders of the Unionist party and the right-hand man of Premier Lloyd George.

Mr. Law's resignation created a sensation despite the fact that he had written a letter giving a full explanation of his action.

Mr. Law said that his health had been frail for some time and that at present he is facing a complete physical breakdown, unless he takes a long and complete rest. He had been advised by his physician to give up all his political activities.

Many political leaders believe that the retirement of the Unionist chieftain means a rupture in the coalition government that will make a general election inevitable.

There was speculation in political clubs and in the lobby of parliament, as to whether "the Tories are refusing to work any longer in double harness with Premier Lloyd George."

PRESIDENT HARDING ASKS FOR REVIEW

Attorney General To Go Over Case of Debs.

Washington, March 17.—President Harding has asked the attorney general to review the case of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist leader, now in the Atlanta penitentiary, the White House announced today.

Secretary to the President Christian stated that the president will take no action on the appeals for the release of Debs until the attorney general has made the recommendations.

The White House denied that any notice had been given the president that the White House would be picketed unless Debs was released by the middle of April.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS

Finney Selected First Assistant Secretary of Treasury.

GUY GOFF ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL

William Spry To Be Land Office Commissioner General

D. R. Crissinger Begins Duties as the New Comptroller of Currency—Numerous Callers at the White House.

Washington, March 17.—President Harding today made the following recess appointments:

To be first assistant secretary of the interior, Edward C. Kinney, of Kansas.

To be commissioner general of the land office, William Spry, of Utah.

To be assistant attorney general, Guy Goff, of Wisconsin.

Reaches Washington.

Washington, March 17.—D. R. Crissinger, of Marion, new controller of the currency, arrived yesterday to assume his new duties, and called at the White House with Hoke Donithan, Marion lawyer, who helped manage the Harding senatorial campaign in 1914.

J. D. Walker, R. B. Ackerman and C. C. Thorpe, Ohio railroad men, called again in the interests of D. E. Robertson, of Youngstown and Cleveland, vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen & Enginemen, for appointments to the interstate commerce commission.

Congressman Nicholas Longworth, Mayor John Galvin and Garry Herrmann, of Cincinnati, called on the president to extend to him, through Mayor Galvin, an invitation to attend the meeting of the American Bar association at that city August 31. No definite answer was given.

The afternoon callers at the executive office included Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty. In connection with Mr. Daugherty's influence in the administration, it was stated yesterday afternoon, that President Harding has decided on the appointment of E. Mont Reilly of Kansas City, Missouri, western manager for the Harding interests under Mr. Daugherty in the pre-convention campaign, to be governor of Porto Rico.

Orleans have information that Ralph D. Cole, of Findlay, who was a candidate for the nomination for governor of Ohio in 1920, was suggester for governor of Porto Rico or for minister to Cuba, but that the possibility of his selection was blocked by the selection of Mr. Reilly for Porto Rico, and the plan to send Major General Enoch H. Crowder to Cuba.

Carmi Thompson, of Cleveland, one of the close advisers of the president, had luncheon at the White House Wednesday. Walter F. Brown, of Toledo, had another appointment with the president late yesterday.

Other visitors included Mrs. David Tod, of Youngstown, former Congressman Warren Gard, of Hamilton and Harry Gordon, Cincinnati attorney.

Goff Selected.

Washington, March 17.—Appointment of Guy D. Goff, of Milwaukee, as the assistant attorney general was recommended to President Harding, Wednesday, by Attorney General Daugherty. Mr. Goff was named for the shipping board by President Wilson as a recess appointee and before that was general counsel for the board.

Mr. Goff was called by Major General Crowder to assist in the first draft in 1918 and he was sent to Europe to represent General Crowder on General Pershing's staff. He later was placed in charge of the admiralty department of the United states army and in the fall of 1919 was sent to Germany and placed in charge of the courts in the occupied area.

Returning to the United States in June, 1920, Mr. Goff became general counsel of the shipping board and after reorganizing the board's legal department was appointed a commissioner.

Fred E. Soobey, of San Antonio, Texas is understood to have been selected by President Harding as director of the mint. Raymond T. Baker, present director of the mint, has not resigned and he said yesterday he had no intention of resigning. He was appointed by President Wilson for a term to expire March 22, 1921.

Mr. Soobey is a personal friend of President Harding and was host to Mr. Harding when the latter visited Point Isabel, Texas, after the elections last fall.

Former Governor William S. Spry, of Utah, is understood to have been virtually decided on by President Harding for appointment as commissioner of the general land office.

Appointment of Edward C. Finney, of Lawrence, Kansas, as first assistant secretary of the interior department, was recommended to President Harding yesterday by Secretary Fall. Mr. Finney is now a member of the board of appeals in the department. He would succeed Alexander T. Vogelsang, whose term of office expired March 4.

Mlle. Yvonne Beclu, as "Queen of Queens" of the Mi-Careme carnival in Paris. Mlle. Beclu, a typist, twenty-one and a brunet was elected "Queen of Queens," from twenty-one other queens, one from each of the Arrondissements of Paris. The carnival is an annual event and all the beauties of the city vie for the honor of being selected as the "Queen of Queens."

NOTED PLAYER IS STRICKEN ON STAGE

Boston, March 17.—William Lawrence Bochner, who succeeded Denman Thompson as "Uncle Josh" in the "Old Homestead," is dead. Bochner, widely known by his stage name of William Lawrence, had played the role of "Uncle Josh" 3,000 times. He was stricken while playing his part on a local stage.

EMPOWERED TO CALL A STRIKE

Leaders of the Packing-House Workers Get Authority

CAN ACT FOLLOWING WAGE CONFERENCE

If the Terms Demanded Are Not Granted by Packers.

Returns from Strike Vote Taken Yesterday Show Eighty-Five Per Cent. of the Workers in Chicago Favor Strike.

Chicago, March 17.—Representatives of packing-house workers who will attend the conference at Washington, Monday, to discuss the method of adjusting the stockyards wage controversy, will be empowered by their constituents to call an immediate strike if their terms are not granted. Reports received, today, from the strike vote taken yesterday in packing plants throughout the country, indicate that the sentiment of the workers is overwhelmingly in favor of a strike.

In Chicago, returns indicate eighty-five per cent. of the packing-house employes voted in favor of a strike. Returns from Denver, Fort Worth, Omaha and other packing centers show that the strike proposal carried strongly in those cities also.

Dennis Lane, secretary of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters & Butcher Workmen of North America and Attorney Redmond S. Brennen, have been selected as the labor delegates to the Washington conference.

LIFE NOT WORTH PINCH OF SNUFF

Return of Verdict To Be Signal for Killings.

WILLIAMSON LIVING IN DAYS OF TERROR

As Trial of Alleged Murderers Approaches End.

Both Sides to Matewan Killings Are Prepared for Trouble. Miners Threaten To March Against the Court-House.

Williamson, West Virginia, March 17.—Eighteen additional state police equipped with high-powered rifles arrived here, today, to supplement the force already here. They bring the total to about forty.

[BY S. D. WEYER.]

[Copyright, 1921, by I. N. S.]

Mingo County Court House, Williamson, West Virginia, March 17.—Now it must be told!

The last act of the "trigger-trial" drama is on and the stage on which it is being enacted is a powder barrel.

Arguments to the jury were begun this morning.

It is time that the curtain of secrecy that has hidden the true situation here from the view of the outside public was lifted. A newspaper man's first duty is to truth.

Things are stirring in Mingo county — mysteriously, ominously. Miners are threatening to come into Williamson by the hundreds and march to the court-house, armed to their teeth. The saner counsels of the United Mine Workers of America have prevailed thus far, but the movement for a sympathy demonstration for the sixteen miners on trial for the murder of Detective Albert Felts is powerful. For one thing, its primo movers insist upon having enough men here to offset the presence of "Felts' men." Rumors are adding to the "trigger" tension. One persistent report has it that at least two score Baldwin-Felts detectives have quietly slipped into town the last few days.

Tom Felts, head of the agency, vigorously denies this. He further avers that there is not a scintilla of truth in reports that strong squads of detectives, or mine guards, as they are more often called, are held at nearby points to pour into this town at a moment's notice.

Felts Men in Town.

There are not more than a dozen known Felts men in town. That there are others working "under cover," is admitted by Tom Felts.

It should be said in all fairness that the Felts men who have been here since the trial began have strictly minded their business; they have gone out of their way to avoid trouble. Some of them have been state's witnesses. Five of them are to be tried, next month, for the murder of Mayor C. C. Testerman and two others in the Matewan gun battle.

There are at least ten men whose lives, common talk holds, are not worth a pinch of snuff from the moment the verdict is in. It matters not which way the verdict goes.

Williamson, for seven weeks the town of suspense, has overnight, changed into a town of "trigger" dread. People, who have gone about their business tight-mouthed for nearly a year, are beginning to talk. And all the talk revolves around the intangible yet omnipresent dread of trouble, which everybody believes will follow the verdict as inevitable as night follows the day. And in the event of trouble, this town has no more protection than some two-score state police and a handful of deputy sheriffs. Every hour makes it more apparent why court and counsel tried so frantically, a month ago, to prevail upon the then Governor Cornwell and the war department to keep the federal troops here.

May Bring Tragedy.

The slightest provocation by either side in the gigantic struggle now approaching, its climax is bound to bring on a tragedy which any one familiar with the sub-surface situation here shudders to contemplate.

Protection is due to the people of Williamson, as peaceful and law-abiding community as one can find anywhere in the United States, a community sick at heart over the shadows cast upon it by blood orgy with which they have had absolutely nothing to do, but which is having its dramatic legal aftermath here simply because this is the seat of Mingo county.

The people of Williamson are [illegible]

RIOTING BREAKS IN BELFAST TODAY

Belfast, March 17.—Rioting broke out here, today, in connection with the St. Patrick's day celebration. The police charged the crowd with batons, but order was not restored until troops were called out. The troops patrolled the principal streets in armored cars. During the fighting, several stores were looted.

QUITS AFTER TWENTY YEARS OF SERVICE

Will Crooks

Will Crooks, most popular of the labor members of the British house of commons, who was forced to resign from the house, through illness, after twenty years' devoted service. A fund which is being raised by way of a testimonial for Mr. Crookes has been subscribed to by members of the royal family, and members of the British cabinet. Mr. Crookes had never fully recovered from the frightful shock of the spectacle when he witnessed some 200 children killed and maimed by a bomb from a German airplane which dropped upon a school building in the neighborhood of his home.

GUN USER SEEKING ESCAPING BURGLARS

Massillon Man Arrested and May Be Charged with Manslaughter, Officials Say.

Canton, March 17.—Eight-year-old Thelma Kime, daughter of Oscar Kime, of Canton, is dead as a result of a bullet passing through her head, last night, the victim of one of the most peculiar cases in the history of Stark county officials. Kime and his daughter were driving through Massillon in an automobile. As they reached a spot near the cemetery, they were suddenly ordered to halt by two men. Fearing that were being held up by robbers, Kime turned on more gas to speed away. A bullet followed, killing the child. Kime stopped and then found that the two men who did the shooting thought his car contained four Canton men who had been surprised in the act of burglarizing a house nearby and James Miller had fired the shot, supposedly at the bandit car. Miller is being held by Massillon police and a charge of manslaughter may be filed against him.

In the meantime, the four men charged with doing the burglarizing made their escape, leaving their car. Massillon police came to Canton and from the license number found the car was owned by John Shumperty. He was arrested and implicated Leo Taylor, C. E. Magee and Joseph Fox, all of whom were arrested and taken to Massillon on the [illegible] charge.

BRITISH GOODS TO MOVE SOON

Soviet Russia To Get Vast Supplies Quickly.

RESULT OF NEW COMMERCIAL PACT

Labor Leaders in England Are Jubilant Over Treaty.

Great Market for Surplus Accumulation of Merchandise. Russian Gold Is To Move to England in Payment.

London, March 17.—Except for the absence of diplomatic relations Great Britain, today, occupies the same position toward Russia she did before the war. Following the signing of the Russo-British commercial agreement, yesterday, preparations were begun, today, to move millions of dollars' worth of British goods into Russia.

Labor leaders are jubilant over the outlook, for they assert that the trade relations with Russia will give work to thousands of unemployed.

British exporters will begin sending tools of all kinds, agricultural machinery, locomotives, rails, typewriters, shoes, cotton and woolen goods and food.

The soviet at Moscow will pay for all the goods with gold until Russia is in a position to begin exchanging raw materials for the finished goods. There is a large surplus accumulation of goods in Great Britain, owing chiefly to the German blockade and the stagnation in trade with the balance of Europe.

The British warehouses are crammed with this merchandise.

The successful termination of the Anglo-Russian trade negotiations after a year of conversations, is one of the most important victories the soviet has achieved since it was established, more than three years ago.

The influx of merchandise will give Nicolai Lenine an opportunity to justify his contention that the lifting of the anti-Russian blockade would put the soviet government in an impregnable position.

It is considered likely that other governments will follow the action of Great Britain in opening trade with Russia. It is pointed out that Washington D. Vanderlip, head of the American syndicate which secured important concessions from Russia, is at present in Moscow conferring with the supreme economic council of the soviet government. So far, however, the United States has not taken any outward steps toward opening commercial relations with Russia.

GENERAL HINES IS TENDERED A PLACE

May Be Made Chairman of Federal Shipping Board.

Washington, March 17.—Brigadier General Frank T. Hines, former chief of the army transportation service during the war, now identified with a New York shipping company, has been tendered a place on the United States shipping board, it was learned here today. It is understood that General Hines may be made chairman of the board. Hines retired from the army soon after the close of the war and went into the shipping business. His home is in Salt Lake City.

Bribery a Felony.

Albany, New York, March 17.—Governor Miller, today, made law the Ravenaugh bill making it a felony for anyone to offer a professional ballplayer a bribe to influence loss of a game. A player soliciting or accepting a bribe will also be held guilty of a felony. The law becomes effective at once.

VICTIM DIES OF BULLET WOUNDS

Rockford, Illinois, March 17.—Mrs. Helen Wildhelm, divorcee, died here, early today, of bullet wounds inflicted by Arthur Bauscher, wealthy florist of Freeport, whose repeated offers of marriage she had rejected. Bauscher had previously died from wounds self-inflicted after he had shot Mrs. Wildhelm.

SAID TO BE SLATED FOR FEFDERAL TREASURER

Jess W. Smith

Jess W. Smith, of Washington Court House, Ohio, who, according to rumors in official circles in Washington, is slated for the post of United States treasurer. Mr. Smith is a personal friend of President Harding and Attorney General Daugherty, and has been active in Ohio politics for twenty years. He accompanied the president on the recent trip to Panama and on the vacation trip in Florida. Mr. Smith was formerly grand exalted ruler of the Ohio Elks.

PLACE OF ORIGIN OF ANTI-"RED" REVOLT

Germany Makes Protest to Allies Against Massing of Polish Troops on Frontier.

Riga, March 17.—Russian soviet forces have captured the fortress of Kronstadt from the counter-revolutionary forces that have been holding it, according to wireless despatches received here, today, from Moscow.

The anti-"Red" outbreak at Petrograd started in the garrison of the Kronstadt fortress. After the garrison mutinied, the sailors on some of the Russian warships in the Baltic fleet joined it. Leon Trotsky, war minister in the soviet government went to Petrograd where he personally directed military operations against the insurgents. He returned to Moscow several days ago and announced that the uprising had been isolated at Kronstadt and promised its speedy collapse.

Chinese Treaty.

London, March 17.—Germany today, protested to the allies against the massing of Polish troops on the German frontier. The protest is contained in a note which was handed to them today.

Poland is reported to have concentrated large forces of troops on the border of Upper Silesia, where a plebiscite will be held shortly, to determine whether this territory will go to Germany or Poland.

Conference To Meet Tuesday.

Toledo, March 17.—This city has been selected as a neutral point for a debate between teams representing the Chicago and New York chapters of the American Institute of Bankers. THE DAY IS BEING QUIETLY OBSERVED

Washington, March 17.—The quiet way in which the anniversary of St. Patrick's day is being observed in other cities was nothing as compared with the manner in which it was observed in this city. Business houses, government offices and schools were closed and hundreds of persons who have ancestors who were born in the Emerald Isle remained at home. Many of the latter, however, attended the services at the various churches.

BANDITS MAKE A GREAT HAUL

Get Platinum Jewelry Valued at Nearly $100,000.

ROB A NEW YORK JEWELRY FACTORY

Bandits Are Believed Men Who Recntly Kill and Rob Another New York Jeweler.

New York, March 17.—Four masked bandits secured between $50,000 and $100,000 in platinum jewelry in a holdup late yesterday, Inspector John Coughlin, head of the detective bureau, revealed today.

It was a robbery similar to that December 16, when four masked men killed Edwin W. Andrews in his jewelry establishment on Fifth avenue and walked out with $50,000 in loot.

In this case, the robbers walked into the rooms of the Fuchi Manufacturing company, No. 17 east Forty-Seventh street, only a short distance from where the Andrews robbery took place, pointed revolvers at two employes and told them that a move meant death. Opening two suit cases, they raked all the jewelry in sight into them. They then walked quietly out of the place and escaped in an automobile.

The police are understood to believe that the same men committed both robberies. Descriptions sent out tally with those sent out for the bandits who murdered Andrews.

ST. MARY'S JUNIORS GIVE SHAKESPEAREAN PROGRAM

Entertain the Members of High School Today.

The members of the junior class, of St. Mary's parochial school, entertained the members of the High school at a Shakespearean program this afternoon in the school hall. The subject for the afternoon was "Macbeth." "The Genuis of Shakespeare" was the subject of a reading by Edmund O'Connell, after which John Schwinger gave the class poem. A number by the class chorus was followed by a reading on "Macbeth" by Miss Catherine English. The character of Macbeth was taken by Harry McFarland while Alice Macken took the role of Lady Macbeth. "The Weakness of Macbeth's Character" was given by Miss Catherine Schuler and a description of the battle of Burmas Wood by Miss Katherine Malia.

Following the program the juniors entertained the senior class members and Father Richard McGinty and Father Thomas Kearns at a dinner and social hour. The class colors of pink and green decorated the banquet room and the class flower, Ophelia roses, gave a most attractive appearance to the banquet tables. A musical program was given by the school orchestra during the social hour.

JAMES B. BERRY DIES AT WALDO WEDNESDAY

Waldo, O., March 17.—[Special.] James B. Berry, manager of the local telephone exchange, died Wednesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock of tuberculosis. He had been ill since last November. He was born in Green Camp township and passed his entire life in and near Green Camp. He was aged sixty-four years, three months and eight days.

Mr. Berry was twice married, his first wife being Miss Fanny Dowell, of Green Camp. Following her death Mr. Berry was later married to Miss Harriet Stemm, who with Mrs. William A. Court, of Green Camp, a daughter by the former marriage survives. Other relatives are a niece, Mrs. Theodore Bergegrum, of Green Camp, and a nephew, LeRoy DuRose, of Phoenix, Arizona, both of whom were reared by Mr. and Mrs. Berry. Mr. Berry a was lifelong member of the Baptist church.

The funeral will be held at the Reformed church at Waldo Saturday afternoon and will be in charge of Rev. W. W. Crabtree, of Green Camp. Burial will be made in the Marion cemetery.

Miss Florence Huston, of Blaine avenue, was hostess to the members of the En-A-Se club at her home Wednesday evening at a St. Patrick's party. The house was prettily decorated with shamrocks and in green and during the evening music and dancing was enjoyed and the hostess served a luncheon.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holcomb, No. 360 Lee street this morning. This child has been named Robert Asa.

WOMEN WHO EARN BIG WAGES

MRS. A. J. STASNY

First Woman To Make a Success of the Popular Song Business Who Earns Over $50,000 a Year.

Five years ago Mrs. A. J. Stasny and her husband left Cleveland for New York. There they invested their last $75 in a song called "I Found You Among the Roses." They used their one-room apartment as a stock room and office. Since then the couple have built up a million-dollar business with branch offices in eighteen large cities with main offices in New York. In that first song Mrs. Stasny found gold among the roses and she is among America's women who are earning more than $50,000 a year.

SURVEY OF THE NATION MADE

Slight Decrease Shown in Number of Unemployed.

IMPROVEMENT NOTED THROUGHOUT OHIO

Department of Labor Makes a Report on Industrial Conditions of Country.

Washington, March 17.—While the number of employed in the United States showed a slight decrease in February, labor conditions in Ohio indicated improvement, with prospects of further betterment, the department of labor's employment service announced in its monthly survey.

The decrease last month as compared with January was estimated at eight per cent. The employment service made no attempt to estimate the size of the nation's army of jobless workers, but its figures showed that 1,423 firms, located in the sixty-five principal industrial centers of the country, had in their employ February 28 a total of 1,626,953 workers, as compared with 1,643,253 on January 31 a net decrease of 16,295.

Reports to the service showed decided increases in the number employed in the manufacture of automobiles and land vehicles, textiles and leather products, amounting to 18.8, 8.5 and 7.7 per cent, respectively. These increases, however, were offset by decreases of 7.3 per cent. in the iron and steel industries, 6.6 per cent. in railroad repair shops, six per cent. in chemical plants and 5.7 in producers of liquors and beverages.

Denver, Colorado, led the thirty-six cities in which the number of employed was less at the end of February than at the close of the preceding month. On the same basis Youngstown, Ohio, Indianapolis, San Francisco and Grand Rapids followed in the order named.

The percentage of unemployed showed the greatest increase in Chattanooga, Tennessee, amounting to 67.6 over January. Other cities showing heavily increased percentage of unemployed were Detroit, Peoria, Illinois, Johnstown, Pennsylvania and Bridgeport, Connecticut.

Reports from New York City, Boston and St. Louis showed an increase in the percentage of employed, while figures for Chicago, Baltimore, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and Pittsburgh gave a decrease in the number of workers able to maintain a hold on their jobs.

New England reports showed improvement generally in business and labor conditions, unemployment and part-time employment being most prevalent in the textile, shoe, machinery, metal and building trade industries.

A SHARP NOTE SENT PANAMA

Demanded That Panama Cease Quibbling Over Boundery.

EXPECTED TO ACCEPT THE WHITE DECISION

State Department Clearly Defines Its Position in Panama-Costa Rican Muddle.

Washington, March 17.—A new note, sharper in tone than its predecessors and virtually demanding that Panama cease its quibbling with Costa Rica and accept the White decision in the boundary dispute, was dispatched, today by the state department to the republic of Panama.

The position of this government, clearly stated in the communication, is that there is no basis to the Panama contention that Chief Justice White, of the United States supreme court, "exceeded his authority" in deciding the boundary dispute, in 1914.

"The government of the United States," said the note, "therefore feels compelled to urge upon the government of Panama in the most friendly, but most earnest manner, that it conclude, without delay, arrangement with the government of Costa Rica for the appointment of a commission of engineers provided for by article 7 of the Porras-Anderson treaty. In order that the boundary line laid down by the decision of Chief Justice White may be physically laid down in a permanent manner and in accordance with the findings of the awards."

The United States "would view the apprehension a continuance of this dispute," it was stated "and it therefore deems it its duty to ask the government of Panama definitely indicate its intentions to comply with the representations made to it by the government of the United States."

STOKES DIVORCE SUIT IS MOVING

Further Testimony in Action of Multi-Millionaire.

REDDISH HAIR AND HAIRPINS IN EVIDENCE

Testimony of Plaintiff Will Probably Be Completed Today. Wallace To Testify.

New York March 17.—Strands of reddish hair and "goldish hairpins," figured in evidence introduced at the trial of the W. E. D. Stokes divorce suit, today, as the prosecution drew near the completion of its side of the case. Mrs. Lillian Payne, a colored maid, formerly employed in the apartment of Edgar T. Wallace, testified she found them in the bedroom occupied by Mr. Wallace after she had seen Mr. Wallace and Mrs. Stokes, the defendant, enter the apartment.

Mrs. Payne, the day's second witness, called by Attorney Francis Wellman, of the prosecution, said she was employed by Mr. Wallace, from July 5 until December 24, 1917. About the end of November, of that year, Mrs. Payne said, Mr. Wallace, with Mrs. Stokes, entered the apartment by the kitchen door. Mrs. Payne was in the kitchen at the time, she said, and they passed her and entered the bedroom.

The maid left the apartment directly afterward, she said and returned the following morning to do her work.

"What was the condition of the bedroom?"

"I went into the bedroom and it looked—!"

"There were red hairs in the brush and comb and 'goldish' hairpins in the bed," she added.

Mrs. Payne said she remembered Mrs. Stokes coming to the Wallace apartment a second time, and that Mr. Wallace let her in. Mrs. Payne said she left immediately afterwards. She noticed nothing unusual about the bedroom the next day, she said.

Some Testimony.

Mrs. Emma E. Goodwin, corset specialist, who formerly conducted her establishment at No. 13 east Thirty-Fifth street, in the same building as the Wallace apartment, was a reluctant witness for the plaintiff. She said she had noticed Mrs. Stokes, "or else her double," in the stairway leading to the apartments over her shop and also said that on one occasion Mrs. Stokes had come into the shop to use the telephone, stating at that time she had mislaid some keys.

It is expected that the plaintiff's testimony will be completed, late today, when counsel for Mrs. Stokes will ask for an adjournment in order to prepare the testimony for the defense. Attorney Littleton, for Mrs. Stokes, stated that Edgar T. Wallace, named as one of the co-respondents, will come from San Francisco prepared to show he had not seen Mrs. Stokes since 1910, before her marriage to Mr. Stokes. Mrs. Stokes will also take the stand in her fight for separation, alimony and the custody of her two children.

VIEWS AIRED IN CONFERENCE

Postal Workers Meet Postmaster General Hays.

MEN ARE REGARDED "PARTNERS" IN WORK

Postmasters Urged To Seek Constructive Criticism and Invite Proper Complaints.

Washington, March 17.—Views of postal employes on broad questions of policy affecting the personnel of the service were presented to Postmaster General Hays at a conference with national representatives of organized postal employes.

The postmaster general, at whose invitation the conference was held, expressed the hope that frequent meetings might be held between representatives of the employes and departmental officials to facilitate adjustment of all differences.

"The battle is won in the heart of the soldier," said Mr. Hays. "Three hundred thousand men are engaged in this enterprise and we are going to have 300,000 partners. The post-office department is not an institution for profit or politics; it is an institution for service and it is the president's purpose that every effort shall be made to improve that service."

In a notice issued by the postmaster general he urged upon all postmasters the desirability of participating in civic activities of their respective communities as a means of disseminating general postal information and soliciting the cooperation of the public for the observance of the "fundamental principles of mailing." Postmasters also were urged to seek "constructive criticism and invite legitimate complaints of inadequate service," to the end of improving the service wherever possible.

HOUSE PASSES ROBINS BILL

Increases Power of County Auditors in Tax Matters.

MAY CITE TAXPAYERS FOR AN EXAMINATION

Several New Measures Submitted in Ohio Senate and House Today.

(BULLETIN)

Columbus, March 17.—By a vote of 107 to eleven, the house, today, passed the Dunn bill providing for reorganization of state departments. The emergency clause passed by a vote of 100 to eighteen. The bill now goes to the senate.

Measures Adopted.

Columbus, March 17.—The house, today, passed the Robins bill, giving county auditors authority to cite taxpayers before common pleas judges for examination as to the honesty of their returns. The bill goes to the senate.

Representative Price, Summit county, introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the state constitution, so as to provide that only persons who pay the general property tax may vote on bond issues.

A bill limiting the fees of building-and-loan companies on loans to such a figure that the total interest will not exceed ten per cent., was offered by Representative Cole, Cuyahoga county.

Senator Davis, Butler county, offered a bill making jitney bus lines in cities public utilities and requiring them to obtain franchise.

A bill offered by Senator Whitemore, Akron, requires the crediting of all interest received from the surplus fund of the workmen's compensation fund to that fund. The interest now goes to the state's general revenue fund.

Senator Kumler, Preble county, offered a bill seeking to repeal the law permitting administration of anesthetics by persons not qualified physicians or surgeons.

The bill by Senator Eudly, Richland county, relating to the construction and maintenance of a memorial building to commemorate the services of the soldiers, sailors, marines and pioneers of the various counties of Ohio, passed the senate. It goes to the house.

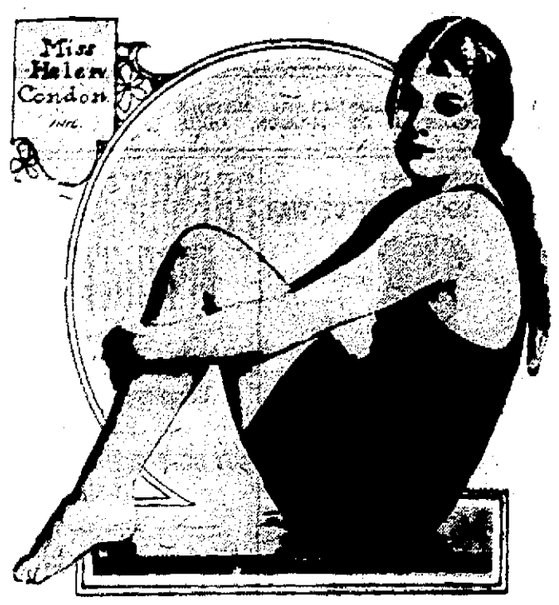
POLICE COURT

James Cantwell Nabbed.

James Cantwell was arrested this afternoon by Officer Yoakam on a charge of driving his automobile while in a state of intoxication. Yoakam drove the machine to police station with the prisoner and he was locked up to sober up for a hearing later.

A daughter was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hirnise, No. 136 east George street.

SWIMMING BUT ONE YEAR, CAPTURES STATE HONORS



Learning to swim but one year ago, pretty Miss Helen Condon, sixteen, of Omoha, Nebraska, recently shattered the state swimming records for twenty, forty, 100 and 220 yards. Following her marvelous feat, Miss Condon was complimented by Annette Kellerman, and is now preparing to compete with other girl stars of the country. Miss Condon is the first girl in Nebraska to qualify for membership in the Woman's Red Cross life saving corps.

ORAL ARGUMENT IN CALVIN CASE

State Supreme Court Takes Up Matter.

EFFORT TO OUST THE QUEEN CITY MAYOR

Dry Leader Submits Argument and Court Takes Case Under Consideration.

Columbus, March 17.—Oral argument was submitted to the state supreme court, today, relative to the suit whereby Attorney George S. Hawke, Cincinnati, "dry" leader, seeks to have the court order Governor Davis to conduct a hearing based upon charges by Hawke that Mayor Galvin, of Cincinnati, has willfully neglected to enforce the state "dry" laws.

Attorney Hawke argued in behalf of his case. Attorney General Price, as counsel for the governor, sought to have the case dismissed.

Although Attorney Hawke contended he was legally authorized to institute the proceedings, the attorney general insisted that the proceedings were irregular and without warrant in law. Attorney General Price argued that the only legal manner in which the Cincinnati situation can and should be handled is for an investigation to be made at the instigation and under the supervision of the state prohibition commissioners. Not until such an investigation disclosed conditions warranting it, could the governor legally take any action in the matter, according to the attorney general.

Upon conclusion of argument, the court took the case under advisement.

Would Issue Bonds.

Columbus, March 17.—The Ohio Gas & Electric company offices at Middletown, today applied to the state utilities commission for permission to issue $274,356.52 worth of common and preferred stock, at par and six per cent. first-mortgage gold bonds, at eighty. Proceeds are to be used in reimbursing the company's treasury for expenditures made and to provide for its budget for this year.

CASE TO REACH THE JURY TODAY

Closing Chapter of Clara Smith Hamon Trial.

COUNSEL FOR DEFENSE ATTACKS GOVERNOR

Also Rebukes Others for Alleged Use of Influence To Convict Defendant.

Ardmore, Oklahoma, March 17.—The Clara Smith Hamon trial will probably go to the jury at 4 o'clock, eastern standard time, this afternoon.

Closing Arguments.

Ardmore, Oklahoma, March 17.—The defense in the Clara Smith Hamon trial began its closing arguments when court opened at 9 o'clock, today.

Judge T. W. Champion overruled the motion of the defense to end further arguments.

J. B. Champion, twin brother of Judge Champion, was the first speaker.

A sensationally bitter attack on Governor J. B. Robertson, of Oklahoma, and Attorney General S. P. Freeling, charging them with using political influence to "persecute Clara Smith Hamon.", was launched by Champion, in opening his arguments to the jury in the Hamon murder trial, today.

Champion also branded Jake L. Hamon, the dead oil king, as a "moral leper."

"You know the personal friends of this debaucher who came into the court to swear against this girl—Frank Ketch and Errett Dunlap—you know these men who have thin fangs on the millions of the dead man."

Champion included in his denunciation, S. V. Mullen. Mullen's brother, sitting within a few inches of Champion, rose half-way in his seat and caught the attorney's arm. Sheriff Buck Garrett seized Mullen by the shoulder and drew him into his seat.

CIVILIANS ARE SHOT TO DEATH

Five Killed During Clashes in Ireland.

FIVE OTHERS SUFFER SERIOUS WOUNDS

Sinn Feiners, Police and Soldiers Battle in the Streets of Dublin Today.

Dublin, March 17.—Five civilians have been killed here within the past forty-eight hours, during attacks on soldiers and the Black and Tan police. The streets are rightly becoming more dangerous owing to the increasing number of Sinn Fein assults against the military.

Lorries patrol the streets continuously and soldiers under arms are constantly held in readiness for fighting services.

Of the five persons killed during the past forty-eight hours, four of them were not concerned in the attacks.

There was an attack against a detachment of soldiers, early today. Afterwards, it was announced at military headquarters that there had been no casualties, but persons who were upon the scene said that five were struck by flying bullets. One of the victims was a boy of fourteen who is said to be in critical condition.

The London correspondent of the Freeman's Journal telegraphed that Premier Lloyd George, at a dinner tonight, will propose the establishment of a constituent assembly by the northern and southern Irish parties for the purpose of allowing them to settle their differences between themselves without concern from the outside.

According to the correspondent, the premier will outline the government's new plans for keeping Ireland in the British empire.

It is suggested that the members of the proposed new parliament not be required to take oath to support the British government.

Republicans leaders said that plans for big processions in the southern cities had been called off owing to fears of interference by the British military authorities.

DAME FASHION REVIVES ART OF HAND EMBROIDERY.

That the art of hand embroidery is again coming into its own is significant with the showing of the new spring and summer dresses. These two Jessco models, which were handmade by French peasant girls, are striking examples of the latest creations. The one on the left still retains the straight lines, which were so prominent last year, yet with its kimono effect sleeves and deep-cut collar, reflects a distinctive individuality. The other is a charming frock of white voile with figured waist and accordion plaited panelled skirt, separated by hand embroidery which makes a striking afternoon frock.

Boston, March 17.—Two persons were killed and six were injured, today, when a passenger train and a freight train were in head-on collision in Norwood.

...ng for the end. They want to be left alone and go back to work under normal conditions. Yet the end is not in sight, for Gee, as the county seat, is now the center of a feud infinitely more bitter and far-reaching and dangerous than the now almost legendary feud between the Hatfield and McCoy clans.

It is the feud between the men of the Baldwin-Felts detective agency and the United Mine Workers of America.

And the dread in all minds and on all lips is lest this feud, smoldering for ten months, break into flame when the twelve men who are to decide the fate of the sixteen defendants in the Matewan gun battle case return their verdict.

Six hundred thousand union coal workers throughout America are vitally interested in the verdict. Four thousand of them live in Mingo county and are watching for it in feverish tension. The great majority of these have been on strike for many months.

There are innumerable new faces in town and every train brings more. Every new face is a sub-surface sensation. For this town is saturated with a system of espionage and counter-espionage such as would put to shame the boldest dreams of secret-service wizards. Every step of everybody of consequence is shadowed by one side or the other—or both. Each side has its "watchers" of every imaginable sort of job, in all walks of life. The "watchers" those whose lives are in the shadow are supplemented by bodyguards for of "strikers" dread.

An Easy Way For Thin People to Put on Flesh and Gain Weight

Strong, Straightforward Advice to Thin, Undeveloped Men and Women

If you are thin, scrawny and undeveloped, if your face is peaked and your cheeks and neck exhibit unsightly hollows, it's almost certain that your nervous system is at the bottom of the trouble. You can eat three, yes four, substantial, fat producing meals a day but as long as your stomach has an insufficient supply of nerve force this food you eat will pass out of the body with little if any benefit.

In order to assimilate properly the nourishing food you eat and convert it into healthy tissue and fat the nerves that control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first-class shape and until that is done you might just as well quit trying to put on flesh. Your system is starving for something that will turn the food you eat into healthy stay-there flesh and it can only be done in one way — by correcting faulty nervous digestion.

Thin, nervous, run-down people, however, with impoverished blood and half starved looks are hailing with delight a quick and certain maker of solid flesh called EVANS' TRIPLE PHOSPHATES that is unequalled for repairing faulty digestion and correcting nervous digestive troubles. In fact the makers of Evans' Triple Phosphates guarantee that one month's treatment will increase your weight by several pounds and within ten days make you feel like a new being, full of ambition, vigor and a desire to accomplish things. Bartlett's Drug Store and leading druggists everywhere have agreed to supply Evans' Triple Phosphates and guarantee it to do just what is claimed for it or money refunded.

Caution: While Evans' Triple Phosphates accomplishes wonders in nervous digestive troubles and as a general nerve tonic, it should not be taken by anyone who objects to a few additional pounds of solid stay-there flesh.—Adv.

NURSE'S AUTO STRIKES STREET CAR AMIDSHIPS

Mrs. Lora Piersol Cut on Head by Flying Glass.

MRS. EDWARD TRAVIS, THE HEALTH NURSE, NOT HURT

New Auto Is Badly Damaged and Street Car Is Sent to the Barn.

Mrs. Lora Piersol, of south Prospect street, was cut about the face by flying glass when an automobile driven by Mrs. Edna Travis, county health nurse, ran into an eastbound Center street car at the corner of Vine street Wednesday evening about 6:35 o'clock. Mrs. Piersol was a passenger in the automobile. The machine was badly damaged and the airbrakes of the street car put out of commission.

Mrs. Travis drove north into Center street from Vine. The automobile headed straight into the street car, No. 202, and struck it in the center, knocking the air compressor loose, breaking a number of air connections and damaging the rear step.

Auto Badly Damaged.

Before the street car could be stopped it had scraped along the front of the automobile. There were several passengers in the car, but none injured.

The entire front of the automobile, which was new and was bought for the county health nurse, was demolished and the windshield splintered. Mrs. Travis escaped injury. The street car was in charge of J. S. Hare, motorman, and C. C. Parthemore, conductor.

On account of the air brakes of the street car being put out of commission another car was brought from the barns to replace it. In the meantime three or four cars were stopped at the corner and a crowd of people gathered.

SPRING OR EARLY SUMMER COUNTRY CLUB TO OPEN

Furnishing Committee Will Meet Next Week.

The Marion Country club hopes to have its fine new club house south of the city, ready for occupancy late in the spring or early summer. The hardwood floors will be put down probably next month.

The furnishing committee will meet next Tuesday morning at the office of R. T. Lewis to decide about the general plan of furnishing.

Harmonie Society.

Mrs. Frank Schaffner, Mrs. Fred Lusch and Mrs. Fred Hitteurauch were hostesses to the members of the Harmonie society, of the Salem Evangelical church, at a birthday social given at the home of the former on south State street, Wednesday afternoon. Aside from nearly all of the members, Mrs. Aaron Swartzbaugh and Mrs. Charles Bausinger were guests. The time was passed socially and the hostesses served a luncheon.

Dorcas Circle.

Mrs. Laura Bell was hostess to the members of the Dorcas circle, of St. Paul's English Lutheran church, Wednesday evening, at her home on Bellefontaine avenue. Plans were made to raise money for the church building fund by furnishing the members with money trees to be filled. A green contest in keeping with St. Patrick's day was won by Mrs. I. R. Van Armen and Mrs. Charles O'Dowd. Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Allenbaugh, Mrs. Charles O'Dowd and Mrs. H. L. Petri were guests of the circle.

Union Evangelistic Meetings.

Cooperation with other churches in the city in the union evangelistic meetings to be held this fall was discussed at the meeting of the official board of Calvary Evangelical church, Wednesday evening at the church.

Missionary W. C. T. U.

The Missionary W. C. T. U. met Wednesday evening with Mrs. Presley Wingo, of north State street. Several members gave talks on "How Prohibition Has Benefited Us in the Last Year," and, Mrs. Minnie Jamison, of Columbus, a state worker, gave an interesting talk.

WHITE SOX ARE FREED BY COURT

Seven Under Indictment Are Dismissed Today.

STATE'S ATTORNEY ENDS PROSECUTION

Six Others Held for Trial at Some Indefinite Time in Chicago Court.

Chicago, March 17—Prosecution of the seven Chicago White Sox indicted in the 19199 World's series scandal, was ended, today, so far as state authorities are concerned when State's Attorney Robert E Crowe appeared in person before Judge William E. Dever and asked that the cases be dismissed.

Efforts by defending counsel to have the cases of six others implicated in the baseball scandal dismissed were fruitless and these cases were merely put on call, which mean that they will be heard at some indefinite date.

The players whose cases were "nolle prossed," today, were Eddie Cicotte, Charles "Swede" Risberg, Oscar "Happy" Felsch, George "Buck" Weaver, Fred. McMullen, Claude "Lefty" Williams and Joe Jackson.

The cases of William Burns, Arnold "Chick" Gandil, "Hal" Chase Joseph Sullivan, Raphael Brown and Abe Attell, former featherweight pugilistic champion, named as a "fixer," were put on call.

Immediately after the court had given the conventional order dismissing the seven White Sox cases, State's Attorney Crowe announced that he was "not yet through with the 1919 baseball scandal."

May Reindict.

He announced that his office would make every effort to reindict the accused players.

Today's session was a heated one. State's Attorney Crowe "went to bat" before a throng of ardent baseball fans. Prosecutor Crowe asked Judge Dever for an extension of time, stating that his office had "lost control of the evidence in the cases."

Attorney General Barrett, for the American league, told the court that to assemble the witnesses would take more than at first anticipated and that to get them, it would be necessary to "go from Canada to the gulf, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific."

Judge Dever suggested that trial be put over six weeks. "That amounts to immediate trial," Prosecutor Crowe shouted. "If the court insists on that, I will enter orders for the dismissal of the cases."

After considerable wrangling between the prosecutor and the defense, Judge Dever entered the formal order of dismissal.

THREE AMERICANS REPORTED MURDERED

Are Victims of Robbers in Tampico, Consul Says.

Washington, March 17.—The American consul at Tampico, today, informed the state department of the murded of three American citizens in Tampico, the night of March 10. The consul states that the murder was apparently committed by robbers.

The three murdered men are Ernest Small, Will Roper and S. Brown.

It is understood that the three men were sailors on a Norwegian ship in the Tampico harbor and that after being robbed and murdered by thugs, their bodies were thrown into the harbor.

A request has been made upon the local authorities at Tampico to use every effort to secure the arrest and punishment of the guilty persons.

SURGICAL OPERATION ENABLES HER TO WALK

Mrs Delancey Nicoll, prominent New York social leader, who lost the use of her right leg in 1915 in an automobile accident in England, where she was engaged in war work, is expected to walk again, perhaps as well as she ever did, thanks to a remarkable operation in bone surgery. Following the accident an operation was performed and a section of the bone of the right leg, which had become infected, was removed Thereafter Mrs. Nicoll was unable to walk without the aid of crutches Last December she submitted to an operation by a specialist in bone surgery. He cut a large splinter off the tibia from the lower part of the leg, taking off about one-fifth of its thickness. This he proceeded to use as a substitute for the missing bone in the upper part of the leg. The results since the operation would indicate that within a year Mrs. Nicoll will be able to walk without crutches.

A HEAVY RECESSION IN WHOLESALE PRICES

The Bureau of Labor Statistics Makes an Announcement.

Washington, March 17.—A continued recession in wholesale commodity prices was shown during February, the bureau of labor statistics announced, today. Wholesale prices in February, were 5% per cent. lower than in January and 38½ per cent. lower than the high peak reached in May, 1920, the report stated. Food articles and building materials showed the greatest decrease, both classes of prices declining approximately seven per cent., in February. Farm products dropped about 5¼ per cent., in February.

IN THE WORLD OF INDUSTRY.

Iowa has 208,120 farms, of which nearly one-half are operated by their owners.

American ships, which were formerly never seen at Danzig, now carry on a great trade there

In four of the Mexican states, the law prohibits anybody from taking the place of an employe on strike.

The seventh national exposition of chemical industries will be held in New York City next September.

In England last year work was stopped by no fewer than 1,715 trade disputes, which involved 1,930,000 workers.

The greatest zinc mine in the world, located in Sussex county, New Jersey, has been worked almost continuously since colonial days.

A Jewish shipping corporation has been formed at Jaffa, with a capital of $1,250,000 to establish a Jewish mercantile marine for Palestine.

In New York City there are 44,000 teamsters, who are organized in more than a score of local unions, according to the class of work in which the members are engaged.

For the first time in history flour milled in China is being sold in the European market. A shipment has reached Holland and sales are being sought in other countries. China formerly was a large importer of American flour.

The Order of Railroad Telegraphers was born just thirty-five years ago, when twenty-five members of the craft met at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on June 9, 1886, and formed what is now one of the most influential labor unions in America.

Today there are more than 400 oil refineries in the United States, with an aggregate daily capacity of nearly 2,000,000 barrels. Texas leads all the states with more than seventy plants completed. Oklahoma is second and Pennsylvania third.

Among the international labor organizations to hold their conventions in Canada this year will the International Typographical union, at Quebec; Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, at Toronto; Glass Bottle Blowers' Association of America, at Montreal, and the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers of North America, which will meet at Hamilton, Ontario.

The actual numbers of unions and unionists in New York City are known only approximately, but all figures indicate that the total of union members is in the neighborhood of one million. It is estimated that there are at least 1,000 local unions in the metropolis, of which total about 500 are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor and 200 outside unions.

READY-TO-WEAR STORE FOR WOMEN IS OPENED

"The Fashion" Throws Open Doors to Public Today.

LOCATED AT NO. 237 WEST CENTER STREET

Adolph Abel, Recently of New York, Is Manager of the New Store.

Marion's new ladies' ready-to-wear store, the Fashion, opened its doors at No. 237 west Center street in the Dubbins building at 9 o'clock this morning.

All during the day there was a large number of visitors inspecting the stocks of the new establishment. A crowd had gathered at the entrance some time before 9 o'clock awaiting the opening of the store.

Installation of fixtures and arrangement of stocks has been going on for somb time in preparation for the opening and visitors today found a modern, well-arranged store with a large stock of handsome merchandise and were attended by a corps of efficient clerks.

Adolph Abel, who only recently came to Marion from New York, is the manager of the new establishment. Mr. Abel has had a wide experience in the women's ready-to wear business and was for a long time a traveling salesman Mr. Abe has advertised that the new establishment has one idea, "to give the shopping public of Marion and surrounding country good, honest, reliable, latest, up-to-the-minute women's apparel at the most reasonable price possible."

BUCKEYE BRIEFS

Land Deal Involves Million.

Springfield, O., March 17.—Papers for the purchase of 4,000 acres of improved farm land in Clark county, near South Charleston, from the Houston estate and the Houston Farm company, will be filed in Springfield at once. M. Woodrow of Toledo buying the property at approximately $1,000,000

Prank of Students.

Alliance, O., March 17.—Ten members of the freshman class of Mount Union college are threatened with suspension following a prank in connection with initiation of men into a secret fraternity. The men are said to have entered the Deerfield cemetery eight miles north of here, overturning several tombstones and taking workmen's tools.

Charge Against Bank Clerk.

Columbus, March 17.—Edmund E Fox, 32, assistant cashier of the National Bank of Commerce of this city, is under arrest on the charge of embezzlement. The affidavit for Fox's arrest was predicated on one charge of $10,000 which Fox is alleged to have taken from the bank after raising the total of a series of time notes. It is said that the shortage will total $124,000.

Raises School Age Limit.

Columbus, March 17.—The Bing compulsory education bill, requiring attendance at school of all persons between 6 and 18 years of age, was passed by the house by a vote of 93 to 13. The bill now goes to the senate Besides raising the compulsory age limit for boys from 16 to 18 years, it requires the establishment of part-time schools for pupils who are excused to work part of the day.

Kent Normal Going Ahead.

Kent, O., March 17.—Officials of the Kent state normal were going ahead with plans for the enrollment of 1,500 to 2,000 students in June, despite the fact that the appropriation bill in the Ohio legislature provides no money for operating the school The officials claim that the changes demanded by members of the legislature have already been made. They add that when the legislature makes a first-hand investigation they will make necessary appropriations.

Will Build $40,000 Church.

Conneaut, March 17.—A recreational and Sunday-school building to cost approximately $40,000 will be constructed here this spring by First Christian church as an annex to the present church edifice.

The Smartest of Spring's New Styles Are Here at the New Spring Lower Prices — and Easter Furnishings, Too, Fresh From Their Packings!

EASTER this year, as far as clothes go, will be brighter and fresher and dressier than ever. Because the styles are cheerier, the patterns and colors are brighter and more attractive and qualities are better in every line.

For young men, Sport styles are in great favor. They are shown at "The Men's Store" in many pleasing variations, a refreshing contrast to the plain styles of the past few years. Our display of these handsome new styles is without equal.

Young business and professional men will find the smart new business Suits and Topcoats in our showing this season, much to their liking, in quality and price. And men of conservative tastes, as well, who care not for extreme style changes will still welcome a change from the old clothes to the new, at the attractive lower prices they'll now find here.

For prices are getting back to where they ought to be and good clothes can again be found at Kleinmaier's, as low as $20, $25 and $27.50. Our better qualities, too, in all the newest models are now $30 to $45 instead of $45 to $60 and our finest clothes in the smartest new Spring styles are not $75 to $85 this season, but $50, $55 and $60.

Hats, Shoes, Furnishings — Spring's Favored Fashions!

Our windows are a Fashion Show these days. You'll find represented in our showing, everything that's new and stylish for Easter, 1921—and a handsome array it is!

In hats, our display from Knox and other famous makers, reveals every correct and popular style for Spring, including the new Derbies, Felt and Cloth Hats and Caps.

The smartest styles for Spring in Shoes and Oxfords are here from Regal, in both English and medium toes, fancy or plain models, now $7, $8, $9, $10 instead of $10 to $15.

Likewise in Furnishings — new Shirts, Ties, Sox, Gloves, Collars, etc. — everything that's good is here. New things arriving every day. Select your Easter outfit now, while stocks are most complete.

TO MODIFY BAN ON LIQUOR WITHDRAWALS

Retail Druggists To Be Able To Secure Supplies.

Washington, March 17.—Internal Revenue Commissioner Williams announced, today, that the ban on withdrawal of liquor from bonded warehouses will be modified, April 1 to permit the withdrawals by retail druggists. No withdrawals will be permitted by wholesale druggists.

Williams also announced that the order putting wholesale liquor dealers out of business, would be made effective May 15.

Since the order was promulgated, some weeks ago, the wholesale dealers have been permitted to continue their business to close out their stocks.

Reds Routed In Armenia.

New York, March 17.—A successful counter revolution has occurred in Armenia and Bolshevist invaders have been driven from power, said messages received here by the near east relief The cables added that a new government had been set up in Erivan and now controlled a wide area of the country The Bolshevist army surrendered, and its officers were at once placed under guard, said one message.

Shortage Alleged.

Fargo, N. D., March 17.—Frank C. Heaton, former teller in the Scandinavian-American bank of Fargo, which closed several weeks ago, is out on $20,000 bond, following his arrest charged with embezzling $8,000 of the bank's funds. L. C Reep of the state bank examiner's office said that a total shortage of $70,000 to $80,000 has been discovered

To Forestall Beer Invalids.

Columbus, March 17.—Former Attorney General Palmer's ruling that beer may be prescribed as medicine brought forth from the Ohio Anti-Saloon league a bill providing that only pure grain alcohol may be prescribed by Ohio physicians. It was introduced by Senator McCoy of Mahoning. It was referred to the temperance committee, from which it is expected to emerge speedily with an emergency clause

Youth Said to Have Confessed.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 17.—Sam Purpera, 17, confessed to two Cleveland officers here, they said, that he had murdered George K. Fanner and Wilfred G. Sly, both officials of the W. W. Sly Manufacturing company, in Cleveland, Dec. 31, 1920. Purpera was arrested here March 11.

Shaw to Become Editor.

Columbus, March 17.—N. E. Shaw, state secretary of agriculture, resigned, effective April 1, to become editor of the Ohio edition of the National Stockman and Farmer. A committee of the board of agriculture informed Governor Davis, who requested that Shaw remain until July 1 and indicated he wants the present board to continue in office until the reorganization bill, now before the legislature, becomes effective. Shaw is to inform the board next week if he can remain until July 1.

ERIE RAILROAD POLICE CHANGES MADE PUBLIC

A. L. Dubbs Succeeds DeWees; O. H. Miller Transferred

TIE AND RAIL BREVITIES PICKED UP IN THE YARDS

Thirty-One Applications Balloted on by B. of R. T. Auxiliary. Mansfield Trip Planned

A. L. Dubbs, of Chicago, has been appointed lieutenant of police of the Erie in this city to succeed E. O. Dewees, assigned to other duties. This change was made effective Wednesday when J. E. Leverton, chief of police of the Chicago region of the Erie, visited here. O. H. Miller, of the local force, was transferred to the duties of sergeant of police in Chicago.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks held a largely attended meeting, Wednesday evening, and initiated a class of candidates. Six applications were balloted on and arrangements made for initiation April 6.

H. D. Row, division engineer of the Cincinnati division of the Erie, has returned from Chicago where he attended the meeting of the Railway Appliance association.

F. E. House, superintendent of the Cincinnati division of the Erie, was looking after company business at Dayton, Wednesday.

The members of the B. of L. F. & E. held a largely-attended meeting, Wednesday evening, and transacted considerable business of importance.

Thirty-one applications were balloted on and six received at the meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Wednesday afternoon, in the I. O. O. F. hall. Arrangements were made for the members to go to Mansfield March 31 to attend the anniversary celebration of the lodge at that place. Plans were also made for a dance to be held April 6. The auxiliary wil celebrate its twenty-seventh anniversary April 20 and the lodges from Kent, Akron, Mansfield, Bucyrus and Crestline have been invited to be present at the celebration.

BUCYRUS MASONS WILL BUY DOZER PROPERTY

Home Will Be Built for Proposed Commandery Quarters.

At a meeting of Bucyrus Lodge of Masons on Tuesday evening at which nearly 100 were present, a resolution was passed instructing the committee to purchase the Dozer property, the price arranged being $28,000, says Wednesday's Bucyrus Telegraph.

The Masons have over a third of this amount in their building fund, and with their 500 members, see no reason why the balance can not be easily cared for. It is not their expectation to build immediately; they have a two-year lease yet for their present quarters, with privilege of extension.

The property has a frontage of forty-nine feet on south Sandusky avenue, with a depth of 160 feet. When building commences it is expected to leave the front practically as at present, devoted to business purposes, adding a third and perhaps a fourth story, an examination of the building by contractors showing the foundations were built to support a four-story building. Reaching to the alley eighty by forty-nine feet will be the lodge rooms for the four different orders in Bucyrus, built also with accommodations for a commandry, which has been advocated in Bucyrus for some time.

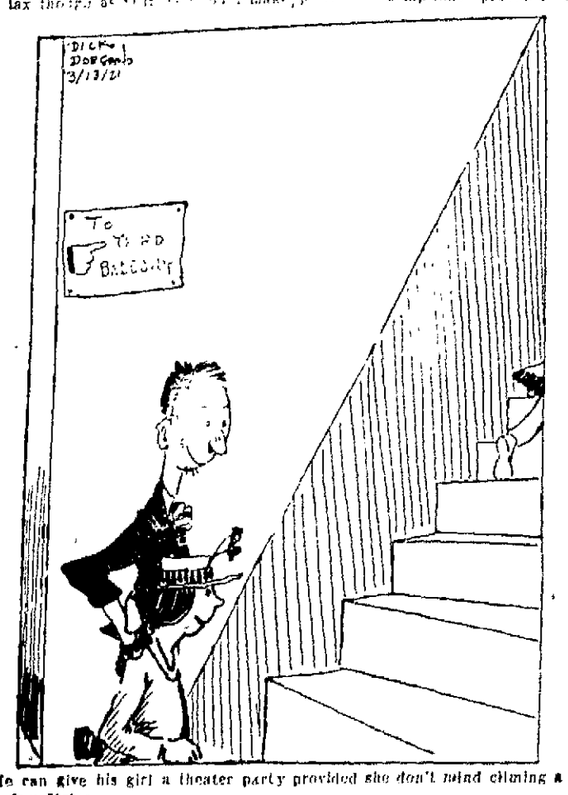
Art of Keeping Dependent On Sum of $200 a Year

To the Editor: [illegible] for me to bring another and the [illegible] is at hand, when the sontax, or more [illegible] as to do with them would be [illegible] told Caesar to beware of them on [illegible] and [illegible] a head low and send [illegible] sect. of it being the date when [illegible] then to Rid the partial pest, but I [illegible] half to give the infer a certain co[illegible] to see this occasion to say [illegible] lector the 1st Sunday in Mar. and to some of our more reasonable [illegible] pretty nearly every [illegible] ly people was d spanking the income more than generous in regards to [illegible] tax theory as [illegible] and make [illegible] exemptions provided the [illegible] ork of old, or if they are mentally [illegible] defective it don't make no differ[illegible] to expend to their [illegible]



He can give his girl a theater party provided she don't mind climing a few flights.

It Looks Simple.

Well on the 1st place let [illegible] you have got a normal son of [illegible] old which nothing is the matter with him. Well a boy [illegible] some one [illegible] to be in school [illegible] has got to have clothes to go [illegible] Well here is a list of what it costs per annum and the cost of [illegible] you have where to buy [illegible]

1 Pr shoes	$ 6.00
1 suit clothes	25.00
1 overcoat	7.00
2 pr socks	.50
1 cap or hat	1.50
1 [illegible]	2.00
1 [illegible]	2.50
1 [illegible]	.50
1 collar	.25
1 nightgown	1.50
Total	$ 48.75

And $10.00 per annum for school book and you has got a total of $75.75 which [illegible] is about away from $200 and it leaves $121.25 per annum to feed him with, or about $ .33 per day which is more than ample as a boy that age don't generally very hungry. Still and all its the custom to give them 3 meals per day so I have made out the following menu.

Breakfast

½ egg, toast, cereal ..... .06

Luncheon

1 bowl soup, bread and butter, 1 glass water ..... .06

Dinner

Meat, potatoes, vegetable, dessert ..... .20

This amounts up to only $.32 a day and leaves the young man $.01 per day for spending money, but if he is a chip off of the old block he will have this up for a yr, when he will have $3.65 in one lump and can give his girl a theatre party provided she don't mind climing a few flights.

In order for the kid to get along on one complete outfit of wearing apparell like listed above, it may be nessary for him to spend one day per wk. in the bay while the old lady is creasing his pants and dusting off his shirt, collar, underclothes and etc. If the mother is a church goer she won't have time to do this on the Sabbath, so it looks like the best day for the boy to not get up would be Saturday when they's generally always no school and besides, a boy that is allowed outdoors Saturday is liked to get into mischif.

Smokes for Girls a Problem.

If the 17 yr old dependent is a girl of the opposite sex the expense of her clothes will be about $5 less per annum because she can probably get a dress suitable for all the yr round for $15 where the boy's suit costs $25, but on the other hand the gal's hat will set you back a 5 spot and the things you don't see on her costs say $1 more than the boy's aumentionables, as undershirt and drawers are sometimes so aptly called. But while a gal's attire may be cheaper the $.01 per day allowance for spending money won't hardly keep her in tobacco of all kinds and the wise father will bring her home any 2d. hand cigaerttes and etc. he picks up dureing the day.

Of course if the dependent is mentally defective you won't need no $200 or nowheres near such an amt. to keep him going. Take a old piece of leather and cup it up into different snapes to make it look like different kinds of meat.

Then when you serve one of the pieces to him at a meat, say, "The mutton ain't done tonight," or "This steak is tough."

5 different pieces of leather will last him a yr, and he will think they's plenty of variety if you call it enough different names, and if he hollers for fish once in a wile, why stick a few pins in a piece of old sole leather and tell him to look out for bones.

As far as his clothes is concerned, rap him up in a piece of cheese cloth and tell him he's Cleopatra.

Next to a mental defective the easiest kind of a dependent to support is a man or woman under 2 yrs of old. Their milk bill will run up to $70 per annum and a baby carriage costs $15, but it's cheaper than hireing a taxi every time the kid wants to go any place. You [illegible] leaves $115 a yr or $.32 per day to raise a child and most of the kids I know can do it for nothing.

A man won't have no difficulty keeping a wife on $1000 per yr unless he allows her to run a charge acct somewheres. When a woman can tell them to charge it, she will buy all the junk in the store out if you give a gal cash money and say "This is your own," she will hold onto it like it was a library book.

The madam's feed bag is what costs the most and the only way to keep her from eating up a 5 or $600 per annum is to every once in a wile call her fatty in a jokeing way.

Hing W. Lardner.

Great Neck, Long Island, March 11.

Every once in a wile call her fatty in a joking way.

OBITUARY

Fatzler—Mrs. J. F., of No. 305 Linden Place, passed to her reward Friday night, March 11, at the City hospital, her death being due to heart failure, following an illness of two weeks duration. At her bedside at the time of her death were her children, who had been expecting the end, which nevertheless came as a great blow.

Ada Jane Fatzler was born in Franklin county, June 12, 1860. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harper, both of whom are deceased. On April 13, 1881, she was united in marriage to J. Frederick Fatzler, and moved to Marion county, later to Marion, where they have lived ever since. Of this union were born two daughters, Mrs. Dennis A Gompf of No. 213 Lake street Marion, and Mrs. Herbert C. Jochum of Parkersburg, West Virginia.

Mrs. Fatzler was a woman of sincere and motherly love, not only towards her own children, but to all who came in contact. Identified with the leading civic organizations of the city, active in the work of the Red Cross and kindred organizations, as well as having held high offices with the fraternal societies with which she was identified, she leaves a host of friends whose sympathy goes out to her bereaved loved ones.

Early identifying herself with the church, for the past thirty-one years a member of Epworth M. E. church, of Marion, she had given freely of her time and means towards the Master's work and had proven a tireless worker in His service at last answering the summons, "It is enough, come up higher."

Besides the above mentioned children, she is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. F. M. Story, Horace O. Harper and J. W. Harper, of Columbus; Mrs. Lafayette Holt, of LaRue; John and George W. Harper and Mrs. O. L. Sifritt, of Marion. The funeral was held at Epworth M. E. church, March 14, Dr. Jesse Swank officiating.

SADIE ASH AWARDED $1,250 FOR INJURIES

Verdict Returned Against O. Wesley Cover.

FRANK L. CHATLAIN IS PLAINTIFF FOR DIVORCE

He Says Wife Abandons Him Frequently—Married at Harpster

A verdict for $1,250 for the plaintiff was returned by a jury in the common pleas court Wednesday afternoon in the case of Sadie Ash against O. Wesley Cover. The jury was out only about one hour. Oscar G. Hoard was foreman of the jury.

Mrs. Ash sued for $10,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained when she was struck by the defendant's automobile at the corner of Columbia and south Main streets November 2, 1919. The machine was driven by William D. Buttruff, of Bucyrus. Trial of the case began Tuesday morning.

William P. Moloney was attorney for the plaintiff and the defendant was represented by William C. Beer, of Bucyrus, and Justice, Young & Mouser.

A General Denial.

The answer of the defendant in the $1,200 damage suit of William H. Schaffner against the board of county commissioners of Marion county was filed in the common pleas court Wednesday afternoon through Carhart & Warner.

Denial that the accident was due to any negligence on the part of the defendant board is set up in the answer, as well as a general denial of the other allegations of the amended petition. The answer states that even if it should be found that the board was in any manner negligent, the damage, if any, to the plaintiff's car was due to his own negligence.

The plaintiff is suing for alleged damages to his automobile July 2, 1919 when it ran into a ditch on the Green Camp pike.

Reply Is Filed.

A general denial of the allegations of the answer of the defendant and a renewal of the prayer of the petition are contained in the reply of the plaintiff filed this morning in the common pleas court in the $1,200 damage suit of William H. Schaffner against the board of county commissioners of Marion county. The reply was filed through Copeland & Thompson and Scofield, Durfee & Harder.

Wants Interests Protected.

The answer of Marion Council, No. 22, Royal & Select Masters, was filed in the common pleas court this morning in the suit of Annadelle Tolbert against T. R. Smith and Dr. Elmore Young. The suit is an action to set aside the will of Anna C. Salmon.

The answering defendant admits that a donatee of the will, enters a general denial of the allegations of the petition, asks dismissal of the petition and that its interests be protected.

Husband Seeks Divorce.

Frank L. Chatlain, through L. E. Myers, today, filed in the common pleas court a suit for divorce from Mary J. Chatlain, alleging gross neglect of duty and desertion. They were married at Harpster, November 20, 1909, and have on child, Rowena V., aged fourteen years. The petition charges gross neglect for three years and more and states the defendant has abandoned the plaintiff entirely during the last ten years.

and left March 13 stating that she would never return.

Divorce, exclusive custody and education of the daughter and barring of the defendant from any interest in his property are asked by the plaintiff.

Trial Is Begun.

Trial of the $1,300 damage suit of William H. Schaffner against the board of county commissioners of Marion county was begun in the common pleas court this morning. As soon as a jury was secured, on motion of counsel for the plaintiff, the jury was taken to the scene of the accident on the Green Camp pike to view the place. The remainder of the morning session was taken by the statements by counsel and the taking of testimony was begun this afternoon. The plaintiff is suing for alleged damages to his automobile when it ran into a ditch on the pike July 2, 1919.

Mrs. Otto Wynn, of Richwood, returned home Tuesday evening after several days' visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Owen Williams, of Elm street, and her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. George Hagemann, of south Vine street.

A Little More About Clutches

Oil Is "Meat" to Some Clutches And "Poison" To Others

CLUTCHES INTENDED TO OPERATE DRY (without oil) should, under no circumstances, be oiled as to their engaging surfaces and oil and grease should be prevented from reaching them accidentally from the engine or transmission. Clutches that are intended to operate in oil should be supplied with the recommended quantity and grade of lubricant, as often as specified. The manufacturer works out his oiling directions to a nicety and there is little likelihood of improving on them by experimenting. When laying up a car for a long period, it is essential to remember that the clutch surfaces may stick fast in engagement and involve much trouble in separating them, unless the clutch is blocked in the released position. This may be done by pushing the pedal forward and inserting between it and the heel board a piece of wood long enough to secure it in this position. As the asbestos-fabric pads of dry clutches and the leather linings of cone clutches become thin in service, the rivets which hold them in place, sometimes become exposed and scratch against the metal surfaces, causing noise and faulty engagement, so that it becomes necessary to "set" the rivets below the surface of the lining. A cause of faulty cone clutch action is sometimes the weak action of the springs, placed under the leather to facilitate easy engagement. These springs or spring plungers sometimes have to be tightened or replaced. The clutch-brake is used in connection with many clutches and its action has much to do with ease of shifting gears. If it acts too weakly, from misadjustment or greasy braking surfaces, it interferes with changing to higher speeds and if it takes hold too soon or too harshly it makes changing from higher to lower gears more difficult.

TROUBLE WITH CONNECTING ROD BEARING

M. J. writes: There is one connecting-rod bearing of my engine, which troubles me by becoming loose. None of the other engine bearings have needed attention for a long time, but this rod bearing has been taken up repeatedly and yet it begins to knock from looseness, after a few miles of driving. It seems to get just as much oil as the others. What is wrong with it?

Answer: If the crank-pin is not perfectly cylindrical and parallel to the length of the crank-shaft or if the connecting-rod bearing does not line up exactly parallel with its piston-pin, the lower rod bearing is almost sure to work loose as it does not have full bearing surface. The crank-pin should be tested for roundness with micrometer calipers, the crankshaft proved not to have been sprung and the rod tested, on two arbors, as to parallelism of its two bearings. When you fit the bearing next time use prussian blue and make sure that the bushing fits the pin over its entire area.

DECARBONIZING METHODS

W. H. D. asks: Is it really necessary to take off the head of an engine to remove carbon? This is quite a job and if there is an easier way, I want to use it.

Answer: In the case of most cars it is not, in our opinion. The cylinders of most engines can be burned clear of carbon with the oxygen process and fine results obtained without taking the engine apart. Liquid carbon removers also clean out the deposits pretty satisfactorily, if properly used, generally well enough to stop preignition and knocking at least for a time.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR COIL BURNOUT

S. writes: Within two weeks after I received my car, the ignition coil gave out. I contended that it should be replaced free of charge, but the manufacturers compelled me to pay for it. I had never even touched this coil. Can its burning out have been my fault?

Answer: A well constructed coil should be proof against damage due to leaving the ignition switch on, operating the engine with the plug cables disconnected or similar occurrences. The damage may have been due to some cause for which the coil manufacturer was not responsible, such as excess voltage furnished by the generator, but it was more likely the result of initial defects in the coil and almost certainly was no fault of yours.

COMMANDERS ARE GIVEN APPROVAL

In Action Taken Toward Celebration in Boston.

Washington, March 17.—President Harding, today, placed the seal of his approval on the action of the commanders of the military and naval forces around Boston, in refusing to permit their troops in uniform to participate officially in a St. Patrick's day celebration organized by the American Association for Recognition of the Irish republic. The flag of the Irish republic is to be carried in the parade.

The president's attitude in the matter was expressed in a telegram from the White House to John F. Harrington, Massachusetts president of the association, who had protested to the president against the decision of the naval and military authorities in Boston.

Next Morning.

My brother told me this. Marie is his lady friend, Mrs. Hemming, the mother of his chum. He said:

"You know Marie has one of these bright-red sweaters. I took her to a dance in the park one night and she wore it. Some of the fuzz from the sweater rubbed off on my coat sleeve. Next morning I was in a rush to catch my train and forgot to brush it off. Mrs. Hemming and Dud were on the train and we all sat together. While I was talking Mrs. Hemming leaned over and began to pick this fuzz off my sleeve. Well, that was an embarrassing moment.—Chicago Tribune.

Vote of Confidence.

Paris, March 17.—A vote of confidence was given to the Briand ministry, this afternoon, by the chamber of deputies. The majority in favor of the government was overwhelming, the vote being: In favor of the government, 491, against the government, sixty-six. The vote was taken following debate and interpellations upon the indemnity issue.

In Conference.

Washington, March 17.—President Harding conferred with Ambassador Shidehara, of Japan, for about ten minutes, this afternoon. The Japanese ambassador delivered to the president a message of felicitation from his own government.

MISS EMMA SNYDER'S BODY IS RECOVERED

Niece of Mrs. Frank Glosser, of This City.

The body of Miss Emma Frances Snyder, Akron school teacher, who suffering from cancer, disappeared from her room the night of November 8, 1920, was found Tuesday night in a gorge in the Cuyahoga river near Akron. The body, which was found by two men, was heavily weighted with a large stone and a heavy rope. Miss Snyder was about thirty-two years old and was a niece of Mrs. Frank Glosser, of Mt. Vernon avenue.

Mr. Glosser was called Wednesday to Akron, where he identified the body as that of Miss Snyder. The body will arrive in Marion this afternoon on the Erie. Mrs. Glosser will join Mr. Glosser and leave on westbound Big Four train at 7:25 o'clock for Harrisburg, Illinois, where burial will be made.

GREEN IS POPULAR COLOR HERE TODAY

High Mass Celebrated for St. Patrick Today.

Today, St. Patrick's day, is being generally observed in commemoration of the patron saint and apostle of Ireland. High mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Catholic church this morning at 7:45 o'clock by Father T. J. Kearns and this evening in Schwieger's hall there will be an entertainment by all of the Catholic societies of the city. "Wearin' o' th' green" was almost general in Marion today.

St. Patrick was born in Kilpatrick, Scotland, in 373 and was sold by pirates to an Ulster chieftain. He made his escape to France, became a monk and received a vision to understand the conversion of the pagan Irish. Having been ordained a bishop and received the papal benediction, he went to his field of labor about 432. In Ireland he founded more than 350 churches, baptized with his own hand more than 12,000 persons and ordained a great number of priests. Many miracles are ascribed to him, particularly the extirpation of all venomous reptiles in the island.

JACK O'BRIEN SURPRISE KIWANIS CARD FEATURE

Delivers Bolshevik Speech, Then Answers It.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEFENSE LEAGUE STUFF BIG HIT

Today's Silent Boost Is for Two Orders of Coal—Leffler & Bland Gift.

Members of the Marion Kiwanis club were treated to an unusual program at their weekly noon luncheon in the private dining hall of the Busy Bee cafeteria today when Jack O'Brien, Racine, Wisconsin, of the Constitutional Defense league, gave a fifteen-minute Industrial Workers of the World speech and then answered his I. W. W. arguments with a convincing speech of fifteen minutes on Americanism.

Ushered into the dining hall by a big policeman, with the announcement that he had been arrested for his Bolshevik soap-box utterances in the vicinity of the plant of the Marion Steam Shovel company, O'Brien created somewhat of a stir among the Kiwanians. He announced the police had given him another chance to make a speech before a group of working men and that he wished fifteen minutes in which to explain the principles of the I. W. W.

He Gets 'Em All.

O'Brien's dress assisted materially in making the Kiwanians believe he was a true Bolshevik. He wore a cap, blue shirt front, red tie and a rough coat with a button of Eugene V. Debs on the lapel. He also wore a pair of smoked glasses and spoke with convincing earnestness.

Frequently during O'Brien's argument for the I. W. W. cause, there were disparaging remarks from some of the men sitting at the tables. He voiced I. W. W. arguments against capitalism, chambers of commerce, Kiwanian, Rotary and other clubs of business men and praised the work of Eugene V. Debs.

They Sing Appropriately.

At the conclusion of his first talk, O'Brien quickly doffed his glasses, cap, red tie and rough coat, turned and announced that he wished to answer the arguments of the gentleman who just finished speaking." Wild applause was given O'Brien at the close of his talk and the Kiwanians sang America just before adjournment.

"If you will place yourself in the shoes of the great mass of workers who are not sitting in the Kiwanis club smoking fat cigars and planning ways of exploiting others, but are walking the streets of America out of a job, you will better appreciate the proposition that the I. W. W. has to offer to the great army of unemployed" O'Brien stated. He then explained how the workers would overthrow the government and the system and establish in America a government patterned after that in Russia which he said was a "breath of cool air from Russia into the hellhole industry of America." He praised Debs, pointing to a red button with Debs picture on his lapel, and said Debs is in jail because he had the nerve to express his opinion that the master class of America were exploiting the masses.

Sneers at Group.

"The heroes of yesterday are the hoboes of today after they have made the world safe for democracy" O'Brien sneered at the amazed group, "and all of the 100 per cent. Americans are hiding behind the flag in the Kiwanis club and the chamber of commerce as parasites living on the sweat of the worker." He said that "you hear the 100 per cent. profiteering speeches from front porches" while the workers candidate as breathing his last from a "back cell" in Atlanta, which brought forth bitter remarks and angered glances from the diners. "If a notification committee came to Atlanta to notify Debs they could not stay at the Commercial Club or on Mt. Vernon avenue but would be in the "Herr St. of Atlanta," O'Brien declared.

O'Brien flayed the framers of the American constitution, stating that they were all paid tools of the master class of that day, as they were all attorneys of the rich. He paraphrased Debs in closing that "from the crown of my head to the tip of my toes I'm a Bolshevik and I'm proud of it.

Opens Their Eyes.

Answering his I. W. W. speech O'Brien started in to tear down every red argument with an American truth. He traced the growth and development of America to prove his case. He defended the framers of the American Constitution which he declared was the "greatest document struck off by the pen and conceived by the brain of men." He told of how our forefathers threw off the yoke of Great Britain to establish a government "of the people for the people and by the people." He urged a national unity quoting Lincoln that "a nation divided against itself cannot endure." He referred to St. Patrick's day and praised St. Patrick, who he said, on an Easter eve lighted a light on Tara hill and invited the wrath of Baal and his warriors. "And from this light a new Era dawned on Ireland." A torch was likewise lighted by Washington at Valley Forge when he fought the way for Republican government. A government of no classes where the ballot of the pauper and the millionaire elected President Harding, and selects our policeman.

They See the Light.

O'Brien told about his parents coming from Ireland to a piece of freedom. "They saw the light and settled down in America where the soon owned land which is something that they and all their ancestors were never able to own in Ireland," he declared. "My opponent," said O'Brien, "quoted Debs and said he was a Bolshevik, in reply to which I want to state that from the crown of my head to the tip of my toe I am an American. God willing I will carve out my own future with these two hands and this brain. I stand on my own feet and win success for me and my own. If I fail or fall behind in this race of life I seek no alibi in the character of my environment, the economic system or our form of government. I carry no red flag of bitterness and sedition. I fight forward, clear-eyed, independent, whining not, I am an American."

Today's Silent Boost.

Today's "silent boost" was contributed by Leffler & Bland and consisted of two orders for coal. They were drawn by Carl G. Engevicht and H. J. Mantz, who turned the orders over to Mrs. Esther Mack, Red Cross nurse, for delivery to some worthy and needy persons. Attention was called to the "On to Cleveland" movement for the annual convention of Kiwanis International. It was also announced that A. H. Miller, of Toledo, governor of the Ohio district, is to be a candidate for the presidency of Kiwanis International and plans to help boost his candidacy will be made at the meeting of the district trustees in Lima the first week in April. Mayor T. E. Andrews is the district trustee of the Marion club.

TWO HURT, ONE BADLY, WHEN CAR TURNS OVER

Frank Young Taken Home with Internal Injuries.

DODGING MUD HOLE CAUSE OF ACCIDENT

Coleman Burnett Suffers Slight Injuries and Frank Price Escapes Unhurt.

Frank Young of No 251 Elm street, at his home suffering from injuries of an internal nature as a result of his automobile turning turtle on the Bucyrus pike, three miles north of the city, shortly before 12 o'clock Wednesday night.

Coleman Burnett and Frank Price were in the machine with Young, the former suffering some slight bruises, while Price, who was alone in the back seat, escaped injury.

The men were coming south when the accident occurred and according to one of the men the accident resulted from Young attempting to dodge a mud hole while going at good speed. The machine turned completely over in the road and was badly damaged, the top and steering wheel being broken, one of the front wheels and windshield were torn off and it was otherwise damaged.

Harold Fremont, who resides in the vicinity, brought the men to Marion and took them to the Young home. So far as could be ascertained, no bones were broken, but he was injured internally about the stomach and bowels.

TO PREVENT THE LANDING OF CABLE

Government Files an Appeal in Supreme Court.

Washington, March 17.—That the present administration intends to continue efforts to prevent the Western Union Telegraph company from landing a cable from the Barbados to Miami, Florida, has been indicated, when the government filed an appeal in the United States supreme court from the decision of the circuit court of appeals of New York, which dismissed the injunction proceedings of the government to prevent the laying of the cable.

Solicitor General Frierson announced that he would ask the supreme court to advance the case for an early hearing.

First steps to prevent the laying of the cable were taken by the Wilson administration on grounds that the cable works an advantage to British cable companies.

Gobblers Leave Securities.

Lisbon, O., March 17.—About $25 in cash was obtained while valuable stock certificates and other negotiable securities were overlooked Wednesday by robbers who used a sledge hammer and chisels to open a small safe in the office of the I. C. Bean Coal & Fuel company.

OHIO FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

By Mrs. George Elliott McCormick, Director of Press.

More Than 100,000 Now.

The outstanding feature of the first of the eight district conferences of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs at Kent, March 11 and 12 was the official announcement that the Ohio federation now has a membership of more than 100,000. This announcement was made by Mrs. William H. Sharp, Columbus, president of the state federation. In an address that captivated her hearers she told of the splendid work accomplished in all of the various departments of the state federation as well as by the local federations and individual clubs all over Ohio. Voicing her conception of a club woman's duty as a citizen, she asserted that "politics, like charity, begins at home," and added: "The place to begin community service is at the ballot box. See that your party secures good candidates. If your party does not put the right kind, vote with the other party. This may not be good politics, but it is good citizenship. We are a federation of more than 100,000 strong, and we must let our parties know that we intend to have people in office that will secure for city, state and nation the right kind of government."

Mrs. Sharp elaborated somewhat on the fact that Ohio club women were behind house bill No. 14 calling for better town and city planning in Ohio. Her remarks in this regard were supplemented by Miss Genevieve Cline, Cleveland, state federation legislative chairman, who said that many of the pictures today formed an incentive to crime. "There must be better times and we look to the women of Ohio to [illegible] Miss Cline declared.

Three hundred and fifty-two delegates and guests attended the Kent convention, which was a real success. It was notable for the large galaxy of state officers that it drew and for the brilliancy of its program in addition, no hostess city could have been more generous in its hospitality or more charming to its guests. State officers in attendance included Mrs. Sharp, the state president; Mrs. R. E. Mygatt, Conneaut, treasurer; Mrs. John M. Henderson, Martins Ferry, recording secretary; Mrs. Cornelius S. Selover, Cleveland, parliamentarian; Mrs. Charles L. Halter, Fremont, vice president of the Middle North district; Mrs. Allen Marshall, Piqua, vice president of the Middle West district; Mrs. Hermine Z. Hansen, Akron, vice president of the Northeast district, in which Kent is located; Mrs. Jason Brookes, East Liverpool, general federation of Ohio; Mrs. J. L. Selby, Greenville, loan scholarship chairman; Miss Genevieve Cline, Cleveland, legislative chairman; Mrs. Walter E Schutt, Cleveland, industrial and social committee chairman; Mrs. Warren P. Williamson, Youngstown, music chairman; Mrs. Jacob Brenner, Youngstown, Americanization committee chairman; Mrs. George Zimmerman, Fremont, past state president, and Mrs George Elliott McCormick, Marion, director of press.

Ohio Federation Notes.

PUGS ARRIVE TODAY FOR BOUTS TONIGHT

Thirty-Two Rounds of Boxing on the Card.

The pugs who are to participate in the boxing bouts at the armory tonight arrived in the city, this morning, and are putting on the finishing touches to be in the best of shape when the gong calls them to action. Artie Miller and Jerome McCoy, the principals in a ten-round bout are both expecting victory and this will undoubtedly be the best match of men of real class that has ever been seen in the city.

There are still a number of good seats left and arrangements have been made to take care of a large crowd. In all there will thirty-two rounds under the rules that govern army matches. Sammy Troft, of Cleveland, will referee the matches, the first of which will start at 8 o'clock.

New Galion Club.

Galion, March 17.—The Galion Music club was organized, Wednesday, with Miss Edith Cobientz, president, and Miss Lida Marcus, secretary. A large membership was enrolled. The club will be affiliated with the Ohio Federation of Musical clubs, and was organized by Mrs. Raymond Osborn, of Columbus, state field secretary.

PURCHASE OF CRAWFORD COUNTY SITE WON'T HOLD

Attorney General Price Rules Contract Is Not Binding.

NO CERTIFICATION THAT FUNDS ARE AVAILABLE

It Is Now Up to Stafford To Bring Suit Against State Auditor.

Attorney General Price today issued a statement in which he holds that the contract entered into between the board of administration and John J. Stafford, of Marion, for the purchase of 1418 acres of land in Crawford county as a site for an institution for the feeble minded not a binding contract by reason of certain of its provisions and because there was no certification made by the state auditor that the money was available for its purchase.

The attorney general said he was not concerned with questions as to the policy of making the purchase.

Demand has been made on State Auditor Tracy for payment of $365 585 for the land. Acting on the attorney general's advice the auditor will refuse payment and then it is expected that suit will be brought against the auditor.

It was pointed out that unless the controversy is settled soon the 1460 acres of available land will not be cultivated this year.

Mr. Stafford said today that if suit is brought it will be filed in the supreme court

DUC DE CRUSSOL LOSES A BRIDE

Care-Man Wooing Tactics Are Not Approved.

CAUSES SCENE AT PALACE OF DUCHESS

Demands Immediate Marriage and Daughter of the Late T. P. Shonts Refuses.

Paris, March 17.—The engagement of the Duc de Crussol and the [illegible] de Chaulnes, daughter of [illegible] Theodore P. Shonts, of New [illegible] has been broken off because of [illegible] wooing tactics" of the [illegible] suitor, it was learned [illegible]

The young nobleman wanted the marriage to take place at once and refused to hear any arguments in favor of postponement. The duchess and her mother wanted the ceremony postponed for several months, in order that preparations might be made for an elaborate event.

The insistence of the duke is said to have caused a scene at the palace of the duchess, at Lyons.

Angered by the arguments of his fiancee, the duke motored to Monte Carlo, vowing that he would forget everything.

It is reported from Monte Carlo that the duke has succeeded admirably in wiping out the sad memory of his blasted romance.

He is a familiar figure at the casino, and is playing a prominent part at the dances of the younger nobility.

There are reports that the duke has so far overcome the tragic memory that he has been making mad love to a Spanish beauty, accompanying her to dances and tennis courts.

Friends of the duke are trying to patch up the affair between him and the duchess and they insist that this affair with the Spanish beauty is only temporary infatuation, such as he once had for Gaby Deslys, when he followed her to the United States.

GERMANY IS GIVEN NOTICE TO PAY UP

Must Surrender a Billion Gold Marks Within Week

Paris, March 17.—The reparations commission has notified Germany that she must pay 1,000,000,000 gold marks indemnity within a week, it was learned yesterday. This 1,000,000,000 gold marks is part of the 12,000,000,000 gold marks which Germany must pay before May 1, under the terms of the treaty of Versailles. Germany is invited in the note of the reparations committee to submit proposals for the substitution of merchandise or equivalents for the 12,000,000,000 gold marks still due.

THREE ACES BEATEN BY A PAT FLUSH

Results in Killing of Winner in a Nebraska Game.

Fremont, Nebraska, March 17. — Richard Dunkle held three aces in a poker game and thought that was enough to win the pot. Ross Wickersham, however, laid down a pat flush and raked in the winnings.

Dunkle was so enraged, a witness testified at the trial of Dunkle for the slaying of Wickersham, that he started an argument which resulted in the fatal shooting of the winner.

A KANSAS BANK LOOTED WEDNESDAY

Thousands of Dollars Secured by Bandits at Iola.

Iola, Kansas, March 17.—The State bank, of Uniontown, Kansas, thirty miles east of here, was looted of thousands of dollars, Wednesday, by armed bandits. Townspeople engaged in a gun battle with the bandits, two of whom calmly continued looting the bank while their confederates stood off the citizens. The gang then escaped in a motor car.

TAX MEASURES FAIL IN HOUSE

Fostered by Advocates of Uniform Rule in Taxation.

A MOVEMENT TO ENFORCE LISTING

Recommendations of Citizens' Committee May Be Followed by House in Tax Laws.

Columbus, March 16.—Reports to the state auditor showing that balances subject to draft in the general revenue fund shrank from $2,000,000 in June, 1919, to $1,000,000 in June, 1920, requiring either increased revenues or a reorganization of administration to conserve present revenues, was given by the house reorganization committee as one reason why it attached an emergency clause to the propuse dadministrative code.

It asserted also that the state service is becoming "increasingly demoralized" by reason of many vacancies in appointive offices and that those who have been appointed are deterred from initiating any policies. The committee points out further that it is necessary to make the reorganization bill effective at once so that appropriations for the biennium may be made in conformity to it.

The amended bill leaves the banking and highway departments virtually separate from any other and omits the proposed department of examinations, under which examining and licensing boards were to have been placed.

The senate passed the Hopley bill giving county surveyors four-year terms and the Atwood measure permitting the state to acquire lands for game preserves, both of which now go to the house.

Tax Bills Rejected.

The house rejected three of a half-dozen bills fostered by the advocates of the uniform rule in taxation.

If all fail, the house taxation committee will recommend a constitutional amendment along the line of that formulated by Governor Davis' citizens' committee.

When the Cope bill giving tax officials power to examine bank and building and loan records came up for passage, the author moved to re-refer it to the committee on taxation. Several members of the committee asked him if he understood that would kill the bill permanently. He said he did. The motion carried.

The Fouts bill to prohibit deduction of liabilities from credits in tax listing was defeated, 59 to 54 (63 being required.) The Robinson measure imposing a penalty equal to 50 per cent of the value of property not listed for taxation was voted down, 54 to 54.

Three tax bills pending are: By Robins, giving county auditors power to cite taxpayers before common pleas judges for examination as to the honesty of their returns, by Miller of Coshocton, making money invested in other states taxable in the Ohio county where the owner lives; and, by Newhard, to reduce tax rates in proportion to increases in the duplicate.

The uniform rule was written into the constitution in 1851. Fouts of Morgan, arguing for his measure, said the legislature in 1856 put a crimp in the uniform rule when it permitted persons to deduct liabilities from credits, for instance, bills payable from bills receivable.

Taft of Cincinnati predicted if the Fouts bill were to become law every building and loan association in Ohio would be put out of business. Robison of Lawrence, in support of his measure, asserted if the penalty for failure were severe enough people would list all their property.

AMERICAN POLICY IS MISREPRESENTED

No New Basis of Negotiations Is Given Panama.

Washington, March 17. — The state department has requested newspaper correspondents in Washington to ask their respective papers not to editorialize on the story that a "new basis of negotiation" had been outlined to Panama, in a note sent by this government. The story was sent out of Washington, Monday night, by a press association. Not only was a note not despatched the state department said today, but the policy of the United States, as set forth in the story, was misrepresented.

Rail Strike Settled.

Mexico City, March 17.—The National railway strike has been settled. It was officially announced yesterday. The conditions were not revealed. The final negotiations which led to the settlement were conducted for many hours, last night, by General P. Elias Calles, secretary of the interior and representatives of the workers.

One new member was taken in at a special meeting of Marion Typographical Union No. 875, Wednesday afternoon.

Do you buy special butter for your guests?

ARE you ashamed to serve your guests the butter-spread you use for family meals?

Then you should use Golmar—which will save you as much money as the product you are using—yet give you every advantage of the very best creamery butter. In fact, you simply cannot tell any difference between Golmar and the choicest creamery butter. The taste is the same—not just about the same—but exactly the same. Your husband—your family—your guests simply cannot tell any difference.

And in cooking, too, you have every advantage of fresh creamery butter. Golmar is not a substitute for creamery butter—it's the same thing, in taste, in body-building elements, in wholesomeness, in digestibility. It costs less simply because it is cheaper to grow cocoanuts than to feed cows.

Golmar is churned fresh daily from choice cocoanut cream and pasteurized milk—every package comes to you in perfect condition—and it stays fresh amply long enough for a small family to use a pound.

Get a package from your dealer today—use it as you now are using creamery butter—and prove to yourself that it will replace creamery butter in every way. If you are not satisfied, your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Holding A Husband

BY ADELE GARRISON.

Lillian—with a kaleidoscopic box in either hand, held by one of the small wooden handles which shape a catch to big bundle—alighted from the train as I drew up my car to the station platform. I had just had time to make it after my telephone message to Dicky, and I looked nervously over my shoulder as I stopped my car to see if the officious village policeman was in sight, for I knew that I had gone well over the speed limit allowed motor vehicles in the village streets.

It was evidently my lucky day, however, and I sprang to the platform, hastening to take one of the packages from Lillian. I knew that she must be warm, dusty and tired, but I could have deduced not one of the three from her appearance. She was as cool as fresh looking as if she had just stepped from her bedroom door after completing her toilet for the day.

"I'd like to see you fight up a hot some day," I said a bit viciously as we turned toward the car. "But I suppose you'd emerge as unruffled and peaceful as a summer morning."

"Rave on, bacon child,' she retorted. "If it amuses you. But, really, I'd get a new line if I were you. It seems to me I've heard that comment upon my supposed calmness under stress at least four hundred and ninety-nine times. You never saw me trying to do 'em' You never saw me trying to do 'em' I'm more frazzled when I get through trying to mend something than most women are over a wedding or a death. I can run a sewing machine, and that lets me out."

I changed the subject abruptly, for the mention of the sewing machine had brought to my mind an audacious little plan. Perhaps I could absolutely avoid any explanation to Dicky of the wreckage the marauders had caused in the contents of my keep the trunk.

"I need not ask you if you were successful in your quest this morning," I said with a nod toward the bundles as we climbed into the car.

"I was very lucky." Lillian answered, as usual giving to the strenuous effort she had made an air of doing nothing. "I do hope Her Fluffiness will approve."

"She is in a very approving mood this morning," I laughed. "She arose with what Dicky calls a 'left-over grouch,' but she was sunny as a June morning when I last saw her. Tell me, are there any things in that bundle we could take over to our house to sew? My sewing machine is still over there, and if you'll attend to that end of the work I'll take the rest. If I have a specialty it is hemming, and I suppose that will form the bulk of the work."

"Why?" Lillian turned an attentive face toward me. I knew from her tone that she guessed I had some special reason for the request.

"Because Dicky is coming out on the 4 o'clock train to look over the damage, and I thought—"

"Of course!" she interrupted. "We must get that stuff of yours back in the trunk before he comes. The rest of the house doesn't matter. I wonder if Her Fluffiness—never mind, we'll be able to put her off the track."

"You mean you will," I said sauclily. "I'll let you manage Mrs. Durkee—she's beyond me."

"We'll let her inspect these fripperies first," Lillian returned. "Have you people had lunch."

"You know Her Fluffiness." I laughed. "She'll talk about letting you take 'a piece,' and things like that, but she really has quite an elaborate little meal waiting for our return from the station."

"I ought to censure her, but my tummy won't let me," Lillian commented. "I'm simply starved. And really, there isn't such a mountain of work to do on these draperies. Some of them I was fortunate enough to get ready hemmed. With four of us working we'll be able to get everything done, including the cleaning up of that wreckage in your room."

"If only Mrs. Durkee will think so," I sighed mentally, but rejoiced that Lillian was there to manage Her Fluffiness.

As usual, my belief in my friend's adroitness was justified, for when we had looked at and had admired the really exquisite things Lillian had secured—all in the shades of rose which we knew that the dainty bride loved—and had discussed the luncheon Mrs. Durkee had prepared, Lillian began her campaign by saying cooingly:

"You're going to let every one of us help with the dishes, aren't you? I'll promise not to break a single one, and we'll be through in no time."

"I suppose I'd better," Her Fluffiness returned, and we all fairly flew at the task, dispatched it in record-breaking time, and repaired to Lella's room, when everything was at last in order, pleasantly keyed up for the task of making a rose-colored setting for the dainty bride who-se coming we were to celebrate in the evening.

"Let's see if they fit, first," Lillian said. "Then while we're doing it who will measure the hems and put together the pieces that must be done on the sewing machines?"

"Do measure the hems, Madge," Her Fluffiness entreated, "and I'll sort out these pieces for the machines."

For the next few minutes we all worked silently, steadily, and when everything was in orderly piles, Lillian spoke a bit sharply.

"Where's your sewing machine? Madge?"

Asthma Is Dangerous

Folly to Disregard Its Warning.

Asthma is not only a disagreeable affliction but a dangerous one. The constant difficult breathing, the up air passages, the struggle for air, choked up air passages, the struggle for air, the loss of rest, combine to force a great strain on the nervous system and heart—often too great a strain to stand.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a condition or to continually treat with ordinary narcotic medicines, drugs, inhalers, smokes or douches which merely give temporary relief from the choking paroxysms and do not relieve or correct the real cause of the trouble. Instead get from Schmidt's Drug Store or any druggist a small bottle of Oxidaze (essential oil) tablets and take one at short intervals whenever distress is felt and one on going to bed. Instant relief is usually felt and in addition the effect of consistent treatment is to gradually bring about a greatly improved health condition as the symptoms of Asthma disappear forever. Oxidaze is the successful prescription of a Worcester, Mass., physician and its treatment of Asthma, even in the very worst forms has probably never been excelled.

Schmidt's Drug Store sells it and patient and it a safe pleasant and inexpensive treatment to use.—Adv.

IODINE HEALS RUNNING SORES, QUICK RELIEF

Old sores, abscesses, boils, ringworms, chronic ulcers, etc., are best treated and most quickly healed by the application of iodine says a well-known authority who also states that the wide-spread use of iodine in army medical corps has thoroughly proved its great value. He warns, however, against the use of common tincture of iodine, because in this form it irritates and stains the skin. The new form of iodine—Lanolated Iodine—is the best for such purposes. This comes in the form of an ointment and is practically stainless, will not irritate, and is readily absorbed by the tissues. In the Lanolated form, iodine is easy and pleasant to use and every disagreeable feature has been removed. It quickly penetrates, soothes, cleanses, and heals and is really delightful. Nearly all local druggists now sell and recommend Lanolated Iodine. Try it. We believe nothing you have ever used will prove so effective and satisfying.—Adv.

SULPHUR CLEARS UP ROUGH OR RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist.

Any breaking out of the skin, even ugly, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worm. It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly appears. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Adv.

GARIS' BEDTIME STORIES

UNCLE WIGGILY'S RUMMAGE SALE.

BY HOWARD R. GARIS.
(Copyright 1921, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

"Dear me!" exclaimed Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy one day, as she sat in the hollow stump bungalow with Uncle Wiggily, "I don't see how we're ever going to look after them!"

"What's the trouble now?" asked Uncle Wiggily, looking up from the Cabbage Leaf Gazette newspaper he was reading. "Is the Fox or the Wolf coming here?"

"Oh, no!" answered the muskrat lady housekeeper. "But Mrs. Wibblewobble, Aunt Lettie and I and some other animal ladies are looking after some poor mice families in these woods, but we have no money left."

"So you need money to help the poor!" said the bunny gentleman. "Well, take some of mine."

"I did use what you gave me and you were very kind," Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy said. "I used some of my own and so did Mrs. Wibblewobble and Aunt Lettie. But we want to find a way to raise money for the poor without taking it right out of our pockets."

"Ha! I know a good way!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "Have a rummage sale!"

"What's a rummage sale," asked Nurse Jane.

"Oh, you get all your friends to rummage around in their cellars and attics and gather up all the old rubbish and cast-off things they don't need—old hats, old books, old garments, old lamps, tables, chairs—anything is good for a rummage sale.

"Then you pile all these things in some vacant store and you tell them to the animal folk who will come. Almost everybody is glad to buy something at a rummage sale, whether they want it or not. In that way you'll get money for the poor mice."

"Oh, how perfectly splendid!" cried Nurse Jane. "I'll get up a rummage sale at once."

"And I'll give you a lot of my old

things, such as tall silk hats, to sell," promised Mr. Longears.

A few days later Nurse Jane and her animal lady friends got up a rummage sale in an old store. Uncle Wiggily gave them old tall silk hats a red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch that had a crack in it, and other things he didn't need; Grandpa Goosey Gander brought an old tin pan he used to mix his corn meal cakes in, and some of the animal children brought a few of their old toys.

"Oh, we'll make a lot of money for the poor mice!" said Nurse Jane, as Uncle Wiggily helped her pile on the counters the different things to be sold.

Then the animal people began coming in. Mr. Whitewash, the Polar Bear gentleman, bought for three cents one of Uncle Wiggley's old silk hats.

"It will do to keep snowballs in," said the Bear.

So it went on. Things the givers thought were of no use brought in a little money for the poor mice.

Everything was going on lovely, and in came Mrs. Wagtail, the goat lady. She was going to buy something to help at the rummage sale, and she saw, on the counter, a reddish fur piece.

"Oh, what a lovely bit of fur for my neck," said the goat lady, looking at it. "It is almost new. I don't see how anyone could give that away for a rummage sale."

"Let me look," said Uncle Wiggily. "Maybe it belongs to one of the helping ladies who laid it down. It would never do to sell someone's fur neckpiece as rummage."

He looked at the big, fluffy piece of fur and then, suddenly catching hold of the end of it Uncle Wiggily gave a hard yank and cried:

"Out you go! You can't fool us that way!"

And would you ever believe it if I didn't tell you? That piece of fur was the big, fluffy tail of the sly old Fox. And the Fox himself was fast to his tail, and went flying out of the window when Uncle Wiggily threw him.

"Don't try any more of your tricks—sneaking in our rummage sale and pretending your tail is a fur neckpiece!" said the bunny. "You were going to bite some one when you got a chance! Slip along!"

And the Fox, feeling very foolish that he had been found out, skipped along, taking his tail with him. But the rummage sale was a great success, and the poor mice had enough to eat for a year.

"Now I Can Walk" Says Mrs Southcott of Medina

"Here is another letter that makes me happy," says Peterson, of Buffalo. "One that I would rather have than a thousand dollars."

"Money isn't everything in this world. There is many a big hearted, rich man who would give all he has on earth to be able to produce a remedy with such mighty healing power as Peterson's Ointment, to sell at all druggists for 35 cents a large box."

Read this letter, written February 14, 1918, by Mrs. Albert Southcott, of Medina, N. Y. It seems like a miracle, but it is true, every word of it.

I know it because I get similar letters almost every day from people who have used my ointment for old sores, eczema and piles.

Is it any wonder I am happy!

Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sirs:—

"I was an untold sufferer from an old running sore and ulcers. I had tried most everything without any relief from pain. A friend told me of your wonderful ointment and the first box took away the pain that had not left me before in years, and after using just nine dollars worth of the salve I am cured. The ulcer was 9 inches by 6½ inches, is all healed and I can walk. Never, never will I be without Peterson's again.

"You may use this to recommend your ointment if you wish. I can not say enough to praise it." Yours truly, Mrs. Albert Southcott. Medina, N. Y. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Rheumatism

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It

In the year of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-Acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who are thus afflicted know for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, but such relief as I obtained was only temporary. Finally, I found a treatment that cured me completely and such a pitiful condition has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted, even bedridden, some of them seventy to eighty years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of muscular and sub-acute (swelling at the joints) rheumatism, to try the great value of my improved "Home Treatment" for its remarkable healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address, and I will send it free to try. After you have used it, and it has proven itself to be that long-looked for means of getting rid of such forms of rheumatism, you may send the price of it. One Dollar, but understand I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer, when relief is thus offered you free. Don't delay. THE BIG ARMY OF LITTLE RED CORPUSCLES

GOOD BLOOD CONQUERS DISEASE

Pepto-Mangan Purifies the Blood and Fills It with Red Corpuscles.

Scientists like to compare the red corpuscles in the blood to an army. The red corpuscles are disc-shaped, smooth cells which swim in the blood in large numbers. They take off and carry away impurities from all parts of the body.

When disease germs enter your body—and millions do every day—it is the red corpuscles that attack and destroy them.

If your blood is weak and sluggish and loaded with poisons, the disease germs are able to multiply quickly. That is when you are pale and what you call "run down."

That is when you need to take that great tonic, Pepto-Mangan. It contains the ingredients your blood needs to build up and increase the number of red corpuscles.

Pepto-Mangan is for sale at your druggist's, and in both liquid and tablet form. They have exactly the same ingredients. Take whichever you prefer. But to make sure you get the genuine, ask for "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," and see that the name "Gude's" is on the package.—Adv.

JUBILEE'S PARDNER

by Judd Mortimer Lewis

Illustrations by Edwins

When I was going out with the pail and Jubilee to milk the cow and her mother this morning I thought I heard a burglar shooting Mr. Farrel and I dropped the pail and climb the fence and it was Mr. Farrel and his auto which he has got fixed up again from the last time something happened to it. He was winding it up at the front end and then when he had give it a few twists it would start to shiver all over, and would shoot a few times and he would let go of the crank and jump to get to the steering wheel before it would stop. But he could not jump quick enough, and when he seen me looking at him he give me a look that would of made my grandfather have another game leg if he had got it.

I thought it would be good for a fella's mussel to turn the crank and I asted him if he would let me and he said to come ahead. So I clamb down on his side and he got in and took hold of the wheel and I give her a couple of turns and he get her going awful sudden and went around the yard and out of the gate like a skyrocket.

But he ought to have waited a little bit because there was another auto coming up from Bareen street as fast as it could come, and Mr. Farrel was going as fast as he could go, and he lost both of his lamps and his bumper and the other fella lost his mud guard and his tail light. I was glad that I had went to the corner of the house to see him go away, but I climb back over the fence and went out to do my milking before him and the man got done talking to each other, because if I stayed there he would of come back in the yard and blamed me for it. I get blamed for everything.

My teacher says there are lots of fellas in the Are Gone that was afraid to fight with each other for fear they would get a punch in the nose, but they would go out on the line and let the Germans shoot at them and not think anything about it. If a German was to shoot at me I would not want to shoot him. I would go over to where he was at and say, "What do you thing you are doing, you big stiff!" and then I would bring one all the way up from the ground and hang it on his nose. I think I will paint Spider Gutwalts every time I meet him, because we might have another war sometime and the fella that has had lots of practice licking Germans might get to be a captain or something.

We did not go around to Whitey's house after school. I do not like his mother so very well since I fell on her door with her floor lamp. My father said after supper to not stay up on his account, so I went to bed and pulled Jubilee up by the rope in his teeth. When I get long pants I will set up all night some night just to get even.

DRESSMAKER MADE WELL

Followed a Neighbor's Advice and Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vernon, Tex.—"For three years I suffered untold agony each month with pains in my sides. I found only temporary relief in doctor's medicine or anything else I took until my husband saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I mentioned it to a neighbor and she told me she had taken it with good results and advised me to try it. I was then in bad part of the time and my doctor said I would have to be operated on, but we decided to try the Vegetable Compound and I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a dressmaker and am now able to go about my work and do my housework besides. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial as I am always glad to speak a word for your medicine."—Mrs. W. M. Stephens, 1108 N. Cameron St., Vernon, Texas.

Dressmakers when overworked are prone to such ailments and should profit by Mrs. Stephen's experience.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., about your health. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

"A Beauty Sleep"—and then

"A Beauty Breakfast"

Try it for 30 days—to prove

This is what thousands do at the direction of experts to win back the healthful rose tint to pale cheeks—as told by the editor of a famous magazine which is read by half a million women.

They take regular exercise, sleep regular hours, and then start breakfast with stewed raisins. The raisins are plump, delicious fruit-meats stewed so the juice forms a luscious sauce. Note recipe printed on this page. A more alluring fruit dish never has been served in any home—nor any other food that's more effective in this way.

Read opposite what Dr. J. H. Kellogg, an authority who has made a life-time's study of foods, thinks of the raisin. You'll serve stewed raisins every morning when you know the good they do.

Luscious nuggets of food-iron

Raisins are nuggets of food-iron—and food-iron is an essential to good blood.

Get what you need of it each day, and an incomparable, natural rose tint on the cheeks is the reward—nature's irresistible attraction—the good looks of good health.

No need to imitate with rouge when nature thus provides.

Youthfulness is the real beauty, as every woman knows. And good blood is the first consideration. Women of fifty often look but thirty if that natural rose tint is still there.

Stewed raisins are mildly laxative also. Those who eat them regularly are apt to have the clear, white skin that sees the color off—unmarred by blemishes or sallowness.

Great sanitariums serve stewed raisins to rheumatic patients when other fruits might disagree.

So this simple but effective food is one of the most important that any woman ever used. Try daily for a month and see. Begin tomorrow morning. Look in your pantry now.

Let every member of the family have stewed raisins.

Be sure to mail coupon below for "100 Raisin Recipes," a valuable free book that every woman ought to have.

Stewed Raisins

Soak raisins over night, pour water off and place in saucepan, putting in just quite enough water to cover and cook slowly for about an hour, then sugar to taste and add a bit of vanilla. Some raisins do not require much or any sugar.

What Dr. J. H. Kellogg says

(Dr. Kellogg is head of the famous Battle Creek Sanitarium.)

"Raisins are served on the Battle Creek Sanitarium Table every day. A pound of Raisins has twice the food value, an equal amount of lean meat and seven times as much food value as a pound of choicest lean steak. The sugar of Raisins (grape sugar) requires no digestion, being absorbed in the blood-stream as supplied for ordinary organs. If the American people would eat more Raisins and less meat the results would be better digestion, less dyspepsia, less indigestion, less biliousness, less heart disease, greater efficiency and longer life."

SUN-MAID RAISINS

Always use Sun-Maid Raisins for your every cooking need. Made from California's tenderest, sweetest, juiciest table grapes, tested for their fragile skins.

Packed in a great sun-lighted, glass-walled plant. Sweet, clean, wholesome American raisins—the kind you have been good.

These exclusive Sun-Maid Seeded (seeds removed); Sun-Maid Seedless (grown without seeds); Sun-Maid Clusters (on the stem). All fruit. Insist upon the Sun-Maid Brand.

EMPTY CARS FULL OF TROUBLE

"Every idle freight car in the United States is figuratively loaded with economic trouble for the country," is the terse way in which a New York railroad official puts it, in discussing the industrial situation as it affects transportation lines.

Figures given out by railroads indicate that the total of idle freight cars will approximate 475,000 on April 1, which will exceed the high-water mark of March, 1919, due to the temporary after-armistice lull in business. Every one of these idle cars is an industrial and business liability. Here is the answer to the question why the railroads are reducing their operating forces in such a drastic manner and why they are seeking reductions in the costs of operation in other ways. Only cars that are loaded and moving are of any value to the roads as revenue producers.

Only one thing can place these freight cars into service again and give employment to more than 500,000 men who have lost their jobs temporarily—resumption of industrial operations on a large scale and the movement of crops. There are no ideal conditions in transportation. When industry has more nearly resumed normal operations the railroads will probably be taxed to the utmost to meet the demands made upon them. This has been the experience in other periods, and there is reason to believe that it will be repeated before the first half of the year is gone.

REPUDIATION IS NOT SURVIVABLE

"There was no more pungent sentence in President Harding's inaugural address than his declaration that 'No civilization can survive repudiation,' declared a well-known financial writer in Washington recently. "In making that statement the president not only served notice on the world that America can not consent to the contribution of $10,000,000,000 more to the cost of the late war, but in a way little comprehended, he furthered the friendly relations between nations upon the maintenance of which future peace depends.

"'Repudiation' of another sort was one of the prime causes of the World war. It was the repudiation by Germany of her written agreement not to violate the neutrality of Belgium that brought Great Britain into the war, and it was her repudiation of her undertakings to respect international law upon the high seas that compelled the United States to resort to arms. Those were written contracts, and the certificates of indebtedness now reposing in our treasury as evidence of foreign obligations are written contracts. Repudiation of the one is no more to be condemned as a matter of principle than repudiation of the other."

During the war and since, the world heard of "scraps of paper" and nations that looked upon their written obligations as so much paper to be discarded at will were beyond the pale of civilization. The war was waged against militarism but quite as much also to compel respect for international law. Had Germany and the principles that inspired her triumphed, there is not a man of the allied nations but will admit that civilization would have died. As Mr. Harding says, civilization could not have survived the victory of repudiation.

Cancellation of the allied indebtedness to each other and to the United States would simply mean that never again would international indebtedness be created in time of war. The practical effect would be a tremendous stimulation to armaments, the direct antithesis of the object that all the allied nations confess to seek. Without the prospect of resort to foreign credits in the event of future wars, nations would redouble their present cash spendings for defense.

Had the doctrine of repudiation of debts been suggested before the World war, credits would have been denied not only by the United States but by European countries to each other. There is not a shadow of a doubt that but for those credits Germany would have won the war—but for the faith of one nation in the financial honor of another, the war would have been lost to the allies. The diversion created on the Russian front for over two years was made possible by British loans to Russia. Great Britain, France and Italy were enabled to keep up their pressure against the Germans through the supplies of America paid for by money borrowed from the American treasury. The vital need for the money has passed, but the extremities in which the allies found themselves when it was asked should not be forgotten.

The prompt refunding of the loans into long-time obligations with a fair rate of interest would go far toward ending the talk of cancellation. Once the schedule of payments is assured allied nations can adjust themselves to the financial program and talk of repudiation will quickly subside.

There's this to be said for the present-day price of whisky: it lessens the danger a man runs of having it served him at a soda fountain while he isn't looking.

"Papers are much like individuals in one respect," observed the restaurant philosopher at luncheon today, "and whenever I find one taking itself too seriously, I am just bound to smile."

In some ways conditions may not be what they might, but it's worth noting that the country is making some improvement. Consider how comparatively few Arrow Boy silk shirts you see on the street these days.

LIFE'S VAUDEVILLE.

CENSORSHIP.

O rare Ben Jonson!
Years and years ago, he said,

"'Tis not the wholesome sharp morality,
Or modest anger of a satiric spirit,
That hurts or wounds the body of a state,
But the sinister application
Of the malicious, ignorant, and base
Interpreter; who will distort and strain
The general scope and purpose of an author
To his particular and private spleen."

For some years we have had state censorship of moving pictures.

Now it is gravely proposed that we shall add national censorship to state censorship.

What are we contemplating?

Where do we mean to end?

Those who would disinfect and deodorize our movies assert that all passionate love scenes must be eliminated; claim that such scenes are bad for the morals of our young people.

Perhaps; perhaps, I say.

But love, passionate love, springs eternal in the human breast. It doesn't take movie art to create it; it's always in existence. It doesn't take movie scenes to encourage it; it grows and thrives luxuriantly and naturally.

Our ardent moralists, too, would cut all scenes of violence, bloodshed, crime and vice, from the films.

Romance is eternal.

It always has been.

It always will be.

Maybe such scenes as I've mentioned are bad for our young folks; maybe, I say.

But romance will continue to live—in the brains and souls of the young—aye, and of the old, for that matter.

And, if we are going to have censorship of picture shows—are we going to have censorship of all other things dramatic? If not—why not? Too, if we're going to have censorship of dramatic art—are we going to have censorship of all other arts? If not—why not? If we're going to determine what moving pictures the people may see—are we going to decide what the people may read, what painting they may view, what bits of sculpture they may admire? If not—why not?

Are we going to have censorship on the press—of our newspapers, magazines and books? Must all accounts of vice and crime be eliminated from our daily and weekly papers? Must all passionate love descriptions and passages be cut from our magazines? Must their front-cover pictures be tamed and subdued? Must all hints of violence and bloodshed be eradicated from our histories and novels?

Where are we going to find pause?

Let's play safe—yes; but, for God's sake, let's keep sane!

Is the Bible itself to be censored?

For the holy book is full of the things to which our would-be moral censors are now raising strenuous objections.

Where are we going to stop?

And the personal equation bulks large in censorship. Who is qualified to judge, along the lines suggested, what the people should have?

Paint your House and Buildings

FOR ONE-HALF CENT A SQUARE FOOT, PER COAT

That is what you can do with our Thrift Paint. Here is the story: An average size house is 24 by 30 feet and about 18 feet high. This gives you 1944 square feet of surface to be painted.

Three gallons of thrift Paint (any color), three and one-half gallons of pure Linseed Oil together with one-half gallon of Turpentine will give you a two-coat job that can not be surpassed for a fine, high glossy finish at a cost of $17.91 or less than one cent per square foot for two-coat work.

This same cost per square foot applies to any house regardless of size, and you are getting the best material that money can buy.

OPEN SESAME THAT BEATS ALI BABA'S

It's the Master Key of Prayer, Dr. Landis Says.

IN OPENING SERMON OF TRINITY BAPTIST REVIVAL

Many Church Members on Way to Hell, Evangelist at Epworth M. E. Revival Says.

"Prayer is the master key which unlocks God's promise of spiritual awakening and deliverance," said Rev. George M. Landis in his opening sermon on "The Master Key" at Trinity Baptist church last night.

"We have an 'open sesame' infinitely greater than that used by Ali Baba. Spiritual revivals are not stirred up, but are prayed down. Many unsaved hearers miss the appeal of a most eloquently delivered sermon because of their own spiritual blindness. The blind-fold caused by sin can only be removed by the Holy Spirit. To make this revival a lasting success we must pray to God to bring the Holy Spirit into action.

"We have a name, the use of which name, the riches of His grace open unto us the infinite power of God and that is the name of Jesus Christ. We receive all things through His name. The master key is prayer, because we use it in the name of the Master.

"Prayer opens the mouth of God and also the windows of heaven for the giving forth of blessings. Prayer opens the way for God's servants and opens up the door of deliverance for God's servants.

"Miracles are performed by prayer today just as they were in the time of Paul. Prayer opens the eyes of the physically blind as well as the spiritually blind. We can win souls by God's method of salvation through prayer of intercession. The Holy Spirit—the Third Person of trinity—does this work in answer to prayer of believers. In using the master key, we must pray in faith and accordance to His will, for in confessing our sins unto Him, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Rev. Mr. Landis will conduct a Bible study class on "The Greatest Letter," lasting one hour.

The subject of the sermon this evening will be "No Differences." The meeting will open with a song service at 7:30 o'clock.

Epworth Church Revival.

"Many church members are on the way to hell," said Dr. George Birney, the evangelist, at the Epworth M. E. church last night.

The great, soul-stirring message spoken by Dr. Birney gathered about the theme, "The Family Name of God." The proverbial question "What's in a Name," was pointed out to be an all-important matter from man's material viewpoint. "All the distinction of family, all the love and endearment of family ties, all rights to family inheritance, everything," he contended, "lies wrapped up in our family names. "But the family name of God! Ah, that is different, and therein lies the great tragedy of human life. There is a sense in which God is the Father of all men, in the creative sense. But this will not save any man. If you would have your name written upon the very heart of God, be adopted into the family of God, really become an heir of God, and joint heir with Jesus Christ to that inheritance that is incorruptible, undefiled, and fadeth not away, verily, ye must be born again.'

"Through the years the church of Christ has been following two great parallel lines of thought, the kingdom of heaven, and the family of God. Latterly the former has been over-emphasized, the latter underemphasized. In latter days there has been great stress placed upon the enlargement of the kingdom, getting men and women into the kingdom, forgetting the registering of names upon the records of the church by no means insures their being written upon the 'Lamb's Book of Life.'"

In speaking of this evening's service when Dr. Birney will take as his theme "The Tragedy of the Empty House," the speaker grew very enthusiastic, deciding to give the father who should bring out the largest family representation a remembrance of the occasion. He did not state what the gift would be "Come, and bring the babies in long clothes, yes, and do not forget grandma and grandpa," the evangelist said.

COMMUNITY SINGING ENJOYED AT DECLIFF

State Grange Lecturer, Harry L. Caton, Speaks.

HOW ARE YOUR KIDNEYS?

Famous Kidney Specialist's Prescription No. 777, Called "Marshroot," Now Being Sold by Carl G. Ungericht, and All Good Druggists—Is Guaranteed.

During his forty years of constant practice Dr. Daniel G. Carey helped many thousands of despairing kidney diseased men and women in all sections of the country, so don't take any chances with your kidneys.

If you have the faintest suspicion that your kidneys are weak or your bladder is irritated the wisest thing you can to do is to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Marshroot at once. Remember, Marshroot is not a cure-all for patent medicine, but is Dr. Carey's own most wonderful prescription.

Watch the symptoms. The tiniest signals often indicate that the kidneys are ailing and need attention. Dry skin for instance and little specks floating before the eyes. Sometimes the feet feel heavy, as if your shoes were full of lead. Often the joints ache or you have quick, darting pains shooting through the back or side. Then again that frequent desire to empty the bladder, cold, clammy feet and just a little puffiness under the eyes. Occasionally the hands or feet swell slightly and the palms of the hands are moist. Don't neglect these signs—you can't afford to take any chances with your kidneys.

No regular practicing physician devoted more time to the study of kidney and bladder diseases than Dr. Carey. He himself asserted that many thousands of cases could have been helped by Marshroot if taken in time. Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription at Carl G. Ungericht's and all reliable pharmacists the country over. Keep in mind the name, Dr. Carey's Marshroot Prescription, No. 777. No other medicine can take its place.—Adv.
